MORROW GRAIN CO-OP TO PUSH ELEVATORS
 on the market. The government has the burlap supply tied up for sand bags, camouflage and other war uses.

Among officials contacted at Portland and Seattle were Mr. Welles, president of Central Co-op bank of Washington, D. C., who presided; Elmer Carp, engineer with bank revolving fund, and John H. Davis, research division of FCA; E. P. Dodd, head of western division of AAA, and N. A. Donaldson of state AAA and Robert Taylor with Oregon USDA war board; Mr. Westermeyer, of Association of American Railroads; Tommy Kerr, president Portland Grain exchange; A. E. Sutton with North Pacific Grain Growers and Co-ops involved; representatives from various grain bag companies; J. Fred Bergesch, War Production board representative for the Portland area.

"It was definitely stated that farmers themselves, or their associates must build storage facilities if crop is to be taken care of," said Peck. Peck and Glasgow also obtained release on 3000 sacks of wheat at Heppner and 15,000 bulk storage at Ione to make room for farm stored wheat, from FCA, to assist in moving wool clip. This was simply to relieve farm storage and permit movement of wool through warehouses on to cars, it was emphasized.

Mr. Peck represented eastern Oregon wheat growers, and Henry Baker represented the county AAA committee at the Portland meeting.

O. E. S. MEETS TOMORROW

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

Two visitors from California who have been the inspiration for a number of parties, left Wednesday morning for their homes in the southern state. Mrs. Edward Glaesmer of Red Bluffs was accompanied by Mrs. Ross Draper, who lives in Susanville, and Mrs. Agnes Curran, who went to Portland for a visit of several days. Mrs. Glaesmer has been visiting with Mrs. Curran and relatives while here, and Mrs. Draper has been with her sister, Mrs. Richard Lawrence. Tuesday night Mrs. Larence and Mrs. Phil Mahoney entertained at the Mahoney home in honor of Mrs. Draper and Mrs. Glaesmer. Two tables of contract bridge were in play, with Mrs. B. C. Pinckney winning first prize. Guest prizes were given to the two honor guests. Artistic bouquets of spring flowers were used to decorate the rooms, and the dining table at which refreshments were served following the play was lovely with a lace cloth centerpiece of lilacs and yellow tapers in crystal holders

Monday evening Mrs. Mark Merrill entertained two tables of bridge at her home in honor of Mrs. Draper and Mrs. Glaesmer. Gifts were presented to the honor guests and Mrs. Harold Cohn won high score at bridge. Refreshments were served at the close of play.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Mahoney left yesterday for Portland, and plan to return today.

Mrs. Josephine Mahoney is visiting in Portland.

Miss Effie Andrews and Miss Helen Doherty left Friday for The Dalles, where they spent the week end as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Keller. Miss Andrews celebrated her birthday while there.

Mrs. Ilene Laughlin returned Tuesday from a trip to Portland, and is taking residence at the Ferguson cabins this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Parker and children left Friday for Corvallis where they visited Mrs. Parker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kennedy and family. They returned Tuesday night. While away they visited in Portland, Newport and Waldport, tried some fishing and saw the huge cantonment being erected at Corvallis which is to house some 50,000 men.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cohn drove to Pendleton Monday to take Mrs. O. B. Flory of Yakima, who was their house guest the past week, to the train.

Miss Betty Happold is attending business college in Portland.

All women who like to play bridge are invited to attend the benefit bridge party to be given Tuesday afternoon at the Parish House at 2 o'clock, April 28. The benefit is for the Episcopal Sunday school, and tickets will be 25 cents. There will be refreshments and prizes.

Ten tables of cards were in play at the Elks lodge last Thursday night when the members entertained their wives at ladies night. Mrs. L. E. Dick and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson were hostesses and prizes for bridge went to Mrs. Richard Lawrence, first, and Mrs. Orville Smith, second. Pinochle prizes were won by Mrs. Dale Brown, high, and Mrs. James Valentine, second. Dancing followed, and a midnight lunch was served.

Mrs. Norbert Peavy entertained her bridge club at her home Tuesday evening. Mrs. Oral Wright won first prize and Mrs. Peavy had second high score. Spring flowers made the rooms attractive, and the hostess served refreshments following play.

The missionary meeting of the Episcopal auxiliary was held this afternoon at the Parish House. Mrs. W. E. Pruyne and Mrs. L. E. Dick were hostesses. Mrs. Percy Hughes has been in Ontario where she went as delegate to the convocation.

Mrs. George Howard entertained the Kensington club at her home Wednesday afternoon, and this evening is having the What's Trumps club.

Mrs. Chris Brown drove to Portland Wednesday with Mrs. Roger Thomas, the county health nurse, who will attend the O. T. C. meeting there. Mrs. Brown will go to Fort Lewis, where she will visit her brother, Frank Spurlock, who is stationed there.

Open house will be held at the Heppner school next Friday evening starting at 7:15. The various teachers will be in their class rooms to discuss any educational problems with the parents, and students' work in each room will be on display. The home economics department will be open for tea for mothers. A program will be presented in the auditorium at 8:25.

Mrs. O. Quinn of Portland, mother of Mrs. W. H. Cleveland, is visiting at the Cleveland home.

Among those who drove to Condon Tuesday to attend the C. C. D. conference were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Breshears, Mrs. Steagel, Father Francis McCormack, Mrs. Harvey Miller, Mrs. Alden Blankenship, Mrs. Bill Bucknum, Miss Cecelia Healy, Mrs. Don Pointer, Mrs. E. R. Rice, Mrs. Catherine Doherty, Mrs. D. P. Phelan, Mrs. Catherine McIntyre.

Fourteen youngsters were brought to the fourth pre-school clinic, sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary and held at the Parish House Tuesday afternoon. Dr. Belz, state doctor of Portland, made the

Schools Join in May Festival May 1st

The spring festival for all schools of the county is nearing completion. The directors announce that songs have been well learned. They also say that the children are very enthusiastic about the whole affair.

Why not join the schools of Morrow county in their annual spring festival, Friday, May 1st, in Heppner, asks the committee in charge.

CATCHES GROUND HOG

A member of the famed weather-prognosticating tribe, the ground hogs, expressed considerable resentment at his solitary confinement, in a wooden, wire-covered box in front of the Gilliam & Bisbee store where he was placed Saturday afternoon by Neal Knighten of Hardman. Mr. Knighten ran the animal down afoot and captured it while on his way to town, near the Frank E. Parker place, coming out of Rhea creek. Report has been heard of numerous ground hogs in this section this year, their population apparently being on the increase.

examinations, assisted by Mrs. Roy Thomas, county health nurse. Mrs. Millie Evans is in charge of this project, and was assisted Tuesday by Mrs. Harold Cohn, Mrs. Chris Brown and Mrs. L. E. Dick. The children examined ranged in age from the two-week-old baby girl of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Gardner, to youngsters five years old. There will be no clinic next month, according to Mrs. Evans.

Recreation Program Play Night Tuesday

First schedule of activities under the defense co-ordinated recreation program has been released by A. H. Blankenship, chairman. First on the slate is a play night at the school gym next Tuesday evening from 6:30 to 8 o'clock, when everyone interested is invited to play volley ball, ping pong, badminton and group games, also chess and checkers. The play night will be held weekly on Wednesday thereafter. Miss Wright and Mr. Swenson are in charge of the play night.

Tennis, in charge of Lee Howell, is regularly slated on Tuesday and Friday evenings from 6:30 to 8 o'clock. Ellen Hanlon will be in charge of a bicycle group, and horseshoes are in charge of Martin Clark. Bicycling and horseshoes time will be arranged to suit the convenience of the group signed up.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. W. H. Hofstetter, college librarian at Monmouth, announces the engagement of her daughter, Otilia, to Edward Arthur Boydell of Nyssa. The news was told Sunday at the Alpha Omicron Pi house on the University of Oregon campus. Miss Hofstetter is a senior at the university this year and is a member of the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. Mr. Boydell, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Boydell of Nyssa is also a senior at the university and is affiliated with Delta Tau Delta. No date has been set for the wedding.
