O. M. Yeager Returns, Starts Building Work

O. M. Yeager has returned to Heppner where he was reared to young manhood. In the interim of many years he conducted a building and contracting business at Yakima, doing mill work and cabinet making in connection. He has transferred this business to Heppner, bringing his fine shop equipment with him, and is making headquarters at the home of his late father, J. L. Yeager, at the corner of Water and Jones streets. At present he is remodeling the home of Mrs. Blanche Brown, adjacent to the Yeager house on Jones street.

Mr. Yeager's family will join him here at the close of the present school term. He looks upon his return to Heppner as a real homecoming. Due to an injury to his back sustained in an automobile accident a few years ago, he was forced into semi-retirement, but is well equipped through experience and tools to do a wide range of contracting, building, cabinet and mill work for which he believes there is a needed place for his services in Morrow county at this time.

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

The wedding of Miss Betty Jean Mankin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mankin of Ione, to Staff Sergeant Alvin Bunch, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bunch of Missouri, on April 28, was announced by her parents. The ceremony was held in the Episcopal church at Couer d'Alene at 10 a. m., with Canon Rev. Stanley Livingston of Spokane reading the service. The bride, who was dressed in a white satin gown, with a fingertip veil and a pearl crown, and carried a bridal bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley, was given away by her father. She was attended by Miss Marion MacGregor of Spokane, who wore white chiffon, with an orchid corsage. The best man was Tech. Sgt. William Pook, a fellow officer who is stationed at Ft. George Wright at Spokane with the bridegroom. The wedding music was played on the organ by Mrs. Sybil Hatch of Spokane, who formerly lived in Ione. The ceremony was attended by the immediate family and close friends.

Following the wedding service, a breakfast for the wedding party and guests was held at the Elizabeth Anne restaurant in Couer d'Alene, where the table was decorated in a red, white and blue theme.

For her going away costume the bride wore a two-piece suit of light blue crepe, with white hat, gloves, purse and shoes. After a wedding trip which will extend into Oregon, the couple will be at home in Spokane at the Daniels Apartments, May 6.

Guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Mankin, Carlton Swanson of Ione, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Misner of Thornton, Wash., parents of Mrs. Mankin. Mrs. Mankin drove to Spokane the Wednesday before the wedding, and returned to her home yesterday.

Mrs. Mary Bell of Spokane is a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. C. Pinckney.

Miss Maxine Browning is confined with mumps.

Among the visitors in Heppner the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Willis Roller of Palo Alto, Cal. Mrs. Roller is the former June Anderson of Heppner and she and her husband were the guests of Mrs. Robert Thompson during their stay here. Mrs. Roller enjoyed seeing her many old friends, and Monday evening she and Mr. Roller and Mrs. Thompson were the guests of Mrs. Mary Thomson at a dinner at the Lucas Place. Tuesday evening Dr. and Mrs. A. D. McMurdo entertained Mr. and Mrs. Roller at dinner at their home.

Another visitor is Mrs. O. H. Bengston and daughter Brenda of Medford, who are staying at the home of Mrs. Bengston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Benge.

Six tables of bridge were in play Tuesday afternoon at the Parish House, when the benefit bridge was given for the Episcopal Sunday school. High score for the afternoon was won by Mrs. Kenneth Buzzard, and second by Mrs. Mary Thomson. The prizes were delicious looking home-made cakes, and cake and coffee were served for refreshments following play. An out-of-town guest was Mrs. Bengston of Medford. Mrs. Stephen Thomson entertained members of the Wednesday club as her guests at the party.

Mr. and Mrs. George McDuffee of Portland are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Buhman. They are Mrs. Buhman's parents.

Cecil Wise, who is employed in Portland, spent the week end in Heppner with his wife and daughter, who will join him in Portland when school is out here.

Mrs. Raymond Ferguson won high score at the meeting of the What's Trumps club held last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. George Howard. Mrs. Leonard Schwarz won second. Guests for the evening were Mrs. Mark Merrill and Mrs. Schwarz.

Some of the largest trout caught in Rhea creek this spring were hooked by Bill Isom who caught three 17 inches long. Bill is now laid up at home with a sprained ligament in his hip. Little daughter Harriet is also in bed with a severe cold. There is a lot of illness flourishing hereabouts. Mrs. Anna Bayless is confined to her home with a bad cold. Mrs. Kenneth House and Mrs. Alva Jones are at home with the mumps. Little Len Ray Schwarz is ill, and Sally Cohn is at the hospital in Pendleton receiving medical treatment. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Miller took son Tad to Portland Monday, where he underwent an operation for mastoid Wednesday morning at the Coffee Memorial hospital. Mrs. Floyd Jones underwent a major operation Tuesday at the Pendleton St. Anthony's hospital, and is reported as getting along nicely. Mrs. Ray Kinne of Pendleton, who formerly lived here, underwent a major operation there last week. Mrs. William Lee McCaleb, who has been very ill in Portland, is improved, and is now in Corvallis, where Mr. McCaleb is with her.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Fortner of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucas Tuesday night. Mrs. Fortner is the former Anabel Lucas of Heppner, Mr. Lucas' sister.

Mrs. W. E. Pruynt entertained the Past Noble Grand club at her home last Monday evening. After a short business meeting cards were played, with Mrs. J. O. Turner winning high score and Mrs. Gene Ferguson low.

Kay Ferguson, Jim Barratt, Merle Burkenbine, Howard Gilliam and Jack Edmondson, accompanied by Smith-Hughes instructor, Arthur Strauss, left Wednesday for Corvallis to attend a FFA convention, expecting to return Saturday.

"Flight to Arras" by Antoine De Saint Exupery, was reviewed Tuesday evening at the meeting of the Bookworms held at the home of Miss Lulu Hager. Mrs. L. E. Dick,
