SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

The coming of Mother's Day finds a number of Heppner mothers of students at Corvallis on their way to the college for the annual Mother's Day week end there. Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Barratt left Tuesday evening for Portland, from where Mrs. Barratt will go to Corvallis Friday to be with her son Bill. This morning Mrs. Robert Thompson is driving to Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Wilkinson, Mrs. Cecil Krebs, Mrs. Earl Blake and Mrs. Floyd Adams, who will all go on to Corvallis on Friday to spend the week end.

The annual Mother-Daughter banquet sponsored each year by the Business and Professional Womens club will be held next Monday evening at 6:30 a the Christian church. Miss Harriet Hager and Miss Virginia Humphries are in charge of arrangements, and tickets are on sale at Humphreys Drug store. Anyone interested is invited to attend, and for those women with no daughters of their own to take, a list of eligible daughters for the evening is available at Humphreys store.

Mrs. L. D. Tibbles entertained her bridge club at home Wednesday afternoon with a dessert bridge. High score was won by Mrs. Stephen Thompson and second by Mrs. Tom Wilson.

The Music Study club met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Leta Humphreys, with Miss Rose Leibbrand assisting the hostess, for its annual business meeting. Mrs. Lucy Rodgers was elected president of the organization for the coming year, with Mrs. Tom Wilson, vice-president; Mrs. Josephine Mahoney, secretary, and Mrs. Kenneth Buzard, treasurer. Mrs. Rodgers announced her program committee would be composed of Mrs. Wilson, Miss Leibbrand and Miss Gwenneth Glasgow.

The Eastern Star held its Social club at the hall last Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Loyal Parker and Mrs. Gene Ferguson acting as hostesses. Lilacs were used to decorate and two tables of bridge were in play following dessert. Mrs. Dave Wilson won the door prize, as well as high score, and Mrs. Earl Gilliam received the consolation.

The Lexington high school juniors and seniors will hold their annual banquet tomorrow night at the Lucas Place. Places will be laid for fifteen.

Mrs. Phil Mahoney and Mrs. Richard Lawrence drove to Pendleton Wednesday.

Mrs. Floyd Jones returned home yesterday from the hospital in Pendleton where she underwent an operation.

Mrs. Harvey Miller returned to Portland Monday evening to spend a few days at home before returning to be with her son Tad, who is rapidly recovering from the mastoid operation performed last week. He expects to leave the hospital this week, but will remain in Portland for several more weeks to receive treatment.

One of the latest adult victims of the mumps is Mrs. Harold Hill, who is able to be up at this writing.

Miss Gwenneth Glasgow returned Friday from Spokane, where she had been for several weeks with her mother, who is quite ill.

Word from Mrs. Frank Alfred relates that she is now living in Olympia, Wash., while Captain Alfred is in Canada at present. She would like to hear from her friends in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Isom and daughter spent Sunday in Pendleton with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Struve.

Mrs. Harold Buhman entertained her duplicate club at a dessert bridge at her home yesterday.

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet next Monday evening for an important meeting at the home of Mrs. Anna Bayless, with Mrs. Leona Instone and daughter Constance acting as hostesses.

Mrs. Harold Cohn returned last week with her daughter Sally from Pendleton where Sally had been undergoing treatment at the St. Anthony hospital.

Mrs. Sophia Barr, sister of Mrs. W. H. Cleveland, from Portland, is visiting at the Cleveland home this week. When she returns she will be accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Kuhn, who also lives in Portland, and has been spending the past month with Mrs. Cleveland. Mrs. A. D. McMurdo invited Mrs. L. E. Dick and Mrs. Anna Bayless to her home last Friday afternoon to spend the afternoon with Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Kuhn.

Mrs. Lyle Swenson entertained with a luncheon at her home today in honor of Mrs. James Driscoll. Pinochle was played during the afternoon.

Mrs. Earl Bryant entertained her bridge club at her home Wednesday evening. The club met the week before at the home of Mrs. Oral Wright, when Mrs. Thelma Cummings won high score and Mrs. Crockett Sprouls second.

The wedding of Lew Evans, brother of Mrs. Stephen Thompson of this city, to Miss Marion Katherine Housowetz, daughter of Mrs. Frank Housowetz of Venice, California, will be solemnized May 9, in Venice. The wedding will be held at 8:30 in the evening at St. Mark's Catholic church. A reception will be held following the ceremony.

Word has been received by relatives that Miss Nan Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Crawford of Portland, underwent an appendectomy in the city Monday.

Mrs. Ilene Laughlin started to work this week as secretary to the Morrow county rationing board.
