SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

Dr. Gertrude Boyd Crane, who was commencement speaker here, was house guest of Mr. and Mrs.
 Frank Turner during her stay here from Wednesday to Saturday. She left Saturday morning for Portland, accompanying Mrs. Roger Thomas.
 On Friday evening, Mrs. L. E. Dick, who was a college mate of Dr.
 Crane at Montana, and Mr. Dick, entertained with a dinner party for her. Present were Mr. and Mrs.
 Frank Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dick, Jr., Kemp Dick, Mr. and Mrs.
 Alden Blankenship, Mrs. Harlan Mc-Curdy and Mrs. Lucy Rodgers.

Mrs. Fred Lucas entertained the T & C club at her home last Thursday afternoon, with two tables of contract in play. Exceptionally large and beautiful iris from the garden of Mrs. Charles Vaughn were used in decoration Mrs. J. F. Pfeiffer of Seattle won high score for the afternoon and Mrs. Clarence Rosewall was second. Another guest of the club was Mrs. Mary Bell of Spokane.
 Refreshments were served at the close of play.

Among the out of town guests at ladies' night last Thursday at the Elks club were noticed Mrs. Mary Clark of Hood River, formerly Mary Farley of this city. She returned the following morning to her home.
 Ten tables of cards were in play, with seven of bridge and three of pinochle. Mrs. Orville Smith won high score for bridge, with Mrs.
 Conley Lanham second, and Mrs.
 Sam Turner was high for pinochle with Mrs. Boyd Redding second.
 Dancing followed, and a luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mrs.
 Phil Mahoney and Mrs. James Valentine. The last part of the lodge session was held and card games were played without benefit of lights, as lightning caused some trouble with the wiring which put out the electricity for an hour or so.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Pinckney and son Bob, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Bell, Tom Starkey and Don Bennett, left Saturday for Spokane. The three boys will work during the summer, and Mrs. Bell was returning to her home there after visiting with Mrs. Pinckney, who is her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ferguson and family left Friday for a vacation trip, which took them to southern Oregon.

Mrs. Robert E. Lees and small daughter Roberta, of Ontario, are visiting Mrs. Lees' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucas, this week. Mrs.
 Lucas entertained with a bridge party in her honor at her home Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Crawford spent the week end in Portland, and Mrs.
 Crawford, Dick and Jim remained in the city, expecting to leave today with Mr. and Mrs. Truman Babb for Los Angeles to visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. Marcellus Morgan and Mrs.
 Sophrona Thompson gave a bridge luncheon at the Lucas Place last Saturday afternoon. Spring flowers were used for beautiful bouquets about the rooms, and yellow buttercups formed the centerpiece on the luncheon table. Mrs. Anna Bayless won high score for the bridge which followed, with Mrs. Claude Graham receiving consolation.

The wedding of Robert Swick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Swick of Monument, to Miss Lois Justice, daughter of Mrs. George Capon, also of Monument, will be held on June 7th at the Episcopal church in Heppner, with Rev. Eric O. Robathan officiating. The couple will make their home in Monument. Mr. Swick is well known here, as he attended Heppner high school and made his home with his grandmother, Mrs.
 Anna Bayless.

Harlan McCurdy left Friday by plane for Camp Roberts, California, where he visited his son, Harlan, Jr.

This afternoon the missionary meeting of the Episcopal Guild, with Mrs. Harold Buhman officiating, was held at the Parish House. Hostesses were Mrs. Earl Blake, and her daughter, Mrs. Bethal Coxen, of Bend. Plans are being made by members of the auxiliary for the annual birthday party to be held June 11.

A sewing meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. E.
 Dick. It was reported that the annual poppy sale on Saturday was very successful.

Last Sunday, being Whitsunday, early communion was held at the Episcopal church, followed by a breakfast served at the Parish House.
 About forty persons were served by members of the auxiliary.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Doolittle left Monday for Portland, where they expected to stay for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Adams are entertaining Mrs. Adams' parents, of Portland, at their ranch at Hardman.

The Bookworms met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. W. Mc-Namer, to hear Miss Rose Leibbrand review the book, "The Rock and the Wind," by Vivian Bretherton.

Mrs. Earl Gilliam went to Walla Walla last week to visit her son, Jackson, who is graduating from Whitman college on June 1.

Miss Myrthena Martin of Boardman has been retained as first grade instructor in the local schools for the coming year.

ESTHER WRIGHT ERICKSON

News has just been received here of the passing of Esther Wright Erickson, former music supervisor in the local high school, who died May 17 at North Bend, Wash., while assisting her husband, Rev. Harris Erickson, with church services. She was the daughter of Dr. O. C. Wright, former pastor of the Eugene Baptist church. She died from a heart attack. Mrs. Erickson was born at Madison, S. D., living in Eugene as a girl, and was graduated from Linfield college in 1925 and from University of Oregon in 1926 with B.A. degree in music. After teaching here for two and a half years she was married to Mr. Erickson in 1928. Besides her husband she leaves twin sons, James Wright Erickson and Claiborne Reed Erickson, age 13.
 Services were held May 22 in Seattle from Queen Anne Baptist church with the president of the Seattle Pacific college in charge.
 Rev. Mr. Erickson is a teacher in that institution.

NEW NAVY SCHOOL OPENING

Young men 17 years of age or over, who have a fair mathematical background and mechanical or radio aptitude, are eligible for enlistment in RADAR, the Navy's designation for the new division devoted to the operation and maintenance of highly technical secret devices for aircraft location and submarine detection. Those interested in this or any general branch of the Navy are asked to contact the Navy Recruiting Officer, 250 Post Office Building, Pendleton, Oregon.

GIVEN DANCING PARTY

A dancing party in honor of Arthur Stefani's fifteenth birthday was given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stefani at Willows grange hall last Friday. About 60 high school girls and boys and other guests were present. Paul Riet-mann's orchestra played for the dance. Arthur received many gifts, among them a $25 war bond from his father and mother and a stamp book well filled from relatives. At midnight refreshments of birthday cake, ice cream, sandwiches, pop and coffee were served. Everyone present is saying he had a grand time.
