SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

A social event scheduled for this evening is the wedding of Loyd Burkenbine, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Burkenbine, and Miss Christina Brassfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Brassfield, of Palco, Kansas. The ceremony will take place at 7 p. m. at the Phelps chapel, with Martin Clark reading the double ring service. The bride will wear a blue traveling suit, with light accessories and beige veiled hat. Her bouquet will be talisman roses. Following the ceremony a reception will be held, after which the couple will leave for Portland, where they will see the Rose Festival and spend a few days. They will make their home in Heppner.

An annual event which is enjoyed by many is the birthday party by the Episcopal guild, and which was celebrated this afternoon at the Parish House. Both bridge and pinochle were played, and birthday cake served. Hostesses were Mrs. W. O. Dix, Mrs. Charles Thomson, Mrs. L. E. Bisbee, Mrs. Marcellus Morgan. Summer flowers were used attractively throughout the rooms, and the tea table was very pretty with a lace cloth and silver urns.

Joe Aiken left Sunday night by plane for Boston, Mass., where he will be stationed to train troops. He was formerly at the Portland air base.

The American Legion auxiliary met Monday evening at Mrs. Harold Cohn's home for election of officers, at which time Mrs. Gene Ferguson was elected president; Mrs. Earl Evans, first vice president, Mrs. Frank Davidson, second vice president, and Mrs. Dick Wells, secretary. Mrs. Cohn is the new historian. A gift was presented to Mrs. Anna Bayless by the organization in appreciation of her work for them. Members present worked on questionnaires and Mrs. Chris Brown won the "kitty." Announcement was made of the convention which is to be held in Portland July 23, 24, 25. The next meeting will be at Mrs. Bayless' home, and will be for installation of officers and presentation of the past president pin.

Mrs. John Wightman, who is grand Electa of the grand chapter, and Mrs. Ella Bengé, who is worthy matron of Ruth chapter of the Eastern Star, left Friday for Portland, where they are attending the grand chapter of that lodge. They plan to stay in the city until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Wilson of Monument, Mrs. May Giesick, Mrs. J. A. Knappenberg and Mrs. Joseph Woolery of Portland were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Ward last Sunday.

Mrs. Harold Cohn entertained the What's Trumps club at her home last Thursday evening. Three tables of bridge were in play, with Mrs. Raymond Ferguson winning high score, and Mrs. Garnet Barratt, second. Mrs. B. C. Pinckney won high score for the guests. Refreshments were served after play by Mrs. Cohn, whose home was very attractively decorated with many lovely bouquets of flowers.

The T & C club were guests at a dessert bridge at the home of Mrs. Clarence Rosewall Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Charles Thomson won high for the afternoon play, with Mrs. B. C. Pinckney winning second high score. Beautiful bouquets from the garden of Mrs. Garnet Barratt made the home most attractive.

Mrs. Lewis Smith and grandson, Jack Dower of Naches, Wash., are spending a week at the Orville Smith home.

Mrs. Hugh Gaily of Pendleton has been here the last several weeks helping care for her cousin, Billy Snow, who has been very ill at the home of Mrs. Gaily's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hiatt.

Mrs. J. G. Thomson, Jr., entertained her bridge club at her home

Robert Swick Weds Eloise Justice Here

An attractive wedding was that of Miss Eloise Justice, daughter of Mrs. George Capon of Monument, to Mr. Robert Lee Swick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Swick of that place, performed at the Episcopal parish house in this city Sunday

Friday afternoon at a dessert bridge. High score for the afternoon was won by Mrs. Orville Smith, with Mrs. Garnet Barratt winning second. Especially admired by the guests that afternoon was a vase of exceptionally large peonies grown by Mrs. Thomson.

Members of the Woolgrowers auxiliary are looking forward to the tea to be held tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ralph Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hanlon and son Wayne left Saturday for Caldwell, Idaho, where they will visit Mrs. Hanlon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Marmons.

Mrs. Frank Connor entertained her bridge club Tuesday evening with three guests present, Mrs. Frank Gentry, Mrs. J. G. Thomon, Jr., and Mrs. Eldon Robinson. Mrs. Gentry won high score and Mrs. Robinson second, and refreshments were served.

Miss Georgia Kennedy of Corvallis is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ed Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. John McRae of Walla Walla, with two daughters, Marvel and Hilda, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Reese Burkenbine of Walla Walla were Sunday visitors in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Isom left Wednesday for Pendleton where they will spend several days. Bill caught his limit of fish in Rhea creek last Sunday.

afternoon by the Ven. Eric O. Robathan, using the single ring service.

The bride, dressed in white taffeta gown, with white fingertip veil edged with lace and held by a coronet of seed pearls, was given in marriage by her step-father. She carried a white prayer book and three white rosebuds with long satin streamers.

Miss Edith Sweek, the maid of honor and aunt of the bride, wore a gown of white marquisette. The mothers each wore navy blue with beige accessories.

The bridegroom's brother, Roy Bowman of Monument, was best man and ushers were Johnnie Jackson of Monument and Dick Wilkinson. Wedding marches were played by Mrs. J. O. Turner. The bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. F. W. Turner sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

White peonies adorned the altar, and the church was decorated with pink and white peonies, while tall torches holding white tapers were lighted by Frances Wilkinson and Mary Kay Blake, who were escorted to the chancel by Kathryn Thompson and Mary Eleanor Florence.

A reception was held following the ceremony, with parents of the bride and bridegroom and members of the bridal party in the receiving line at the parish house. Mrs. Howard Swick and Mrs. George Capon poured, assisted by Mrs. W. O. Bayless, the bridegroom's grandmother; Mrs. Harold Evans, Mrs. Mark Merrill, Mrs. Harold Buhman, the Misses Blake, Wilkinson, Thompson and Florence, and Mrs. Harold Gregg of John Day.

Seventy-five people attended the reception. From out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey Boyer and son, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Capon, Ned Sweek, Delbert Stubblefield, Clinton Fleming, Mrs. Mary Wade of Monument; Mrs. Louis Moore, Mrs. Harold Gregg and son, and Grandma Wood of John Day.

Mr. Swick is a graduate of Heppner high school and Mrs. Swick is a graduate of Monument high school.

The young couple is at home at Monument following a short wedding trip.
