

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

Among those who drove to Hood River Sunday to attend the wedding of Miss Arlene Morton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Morton, were Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Pinckney, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucas, Mrs. L. E. Dick and Charles Cox. Miss Morton was married Sunday at 3 p.m. at the Hood River Methodist church to Sgt. Sidney H. Sinclair. She was dressed in a white brocade gown with long train and veil held in place with a cornet of lace. She carried a bouquet of pink and white flowers, and was given away by her father. A reception at the Morton home for 100 guests was held, after which the couple left for a few days' trip to Portland. They will make their home in Colorado where Sergeant Sinclair is stationed.

Mrs. L. D. Tibbles entertained the Wednesday club at her home yesterday with a dessert bridge. High score was won by Mrs. Orville Smith and second by Mrs. Leonard Schwarz.

A state Woolgrowers Auxiliary meeting will be held at the Mac Hoke home in Pendleton tomorrow at 10 a.m. This is the day of the ram sale to be held in that city, and it is hoped a number of members will attend.

Several more parties have been given the past week honoring two visitors from California, Mrs. W. P. Mahoney of Los Angeles and Mrs. J. W. Beymer of San Francisco. Last Friday afternoon Mrs. W. O. Bayless and Mrs. Frank Wilkinson entertained for them at the Bayless home with a dessert bridge. Members of the contract club to which both honorees belonged when they lived in Heppner were the guests. Guest prizes were given to Mrs. Mahoney and Mrs. Beymer, and high score was won by Mrs. L. E. Bisbee, with Mrs. Mahoney receiving low score.

On Tuesday afternoon the same group met at the Lucas Place for a no-host luncheon, at which event Mrs. C. W. McNamer won the prize for high score and Mrs. Mahoney received the consolation prize.

Mrs. W. P. Mahoney is leaving this evening for Bonners Ferry, Idaho, where she will spend a week.

Mrs. Richard Lawrence, Mrs. Bert Kane, Mrs. Henry Happold and Mrs. Edward Rice left Monday for a ten days' trip to California. They will visit Mrs. Lawrence's sister, Mrs. Ross Draper, in Susanville.

Among those from Heppner who attended the funeral of Mancell Krebs Wednesday at Arlington were Mrs. Robert Thompson and Miss Katherine Thompson, Mrs. Ed Bennett and Miss Frances Wilkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stoars, Mrs. O. Currie, Leslie Peppers and Mrs. W. O. Bayless drove to Monument Sunday where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Howard Swick.

A baby boy named Louis Steven was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Estberg at The Dalles on August 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Lockhard became the parents of a son at Yakima August 13.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Crawford, son Jim, Mrs. Cora Crawford and Frank Anderson drove to Portland last Thursday, where they remained until Sunday evening, visiting relatives.

Mrs. Beulah Mankin, who has been in the hospital in Portland for a major operation, returned to her home near Ione last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Buhman and children are leaving Friday morning for Portland. On their return they will move their household effects to Lakeview, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nelson spent the week end on a visit from Portland with Mrs. Nelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parker.

Mrs. Raymond Rice of Victoria, E. C., and Mrs. Oscar Borg of Portland are spending two weeks with their sister, Mrs. S. M. Sigsbee. Mr. Rice had been with Mrs. Borg at her home for the past month. Captain Rice is stationed at Vancouver, B. C., where he is with the medical corps of the Rocky Mountain Rangers.

Miss Rhoda Peck of Portland is visiting Miss Shirley Wilkinson this week. Shirley had the misfortune of breaking her ankle last Saturday when her horse slipped and fell on it.

Mrs. Harold Cohn took daughter Sally to Pendleton last Sunday where Sally was entered in the hospital for a tonsilectomy Monday. They returned yesterday.

Miss Betty Doherty of Pendleton is spending a two weeks' vacation in Heppner.

Donna Lee Cole of Coquille is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Groshens.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. McAllister of Medford called on Mrs. E. Harvey Miller Monday afternoon.

Charles Cox drove Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucas and Mrs. W. O. Bayless to Ritter springs Wednesday evening where they will remain for about five days. Mr. Cox returned this morning.

J. O. Turner injured his wrist when he fell from the combine last week, during harvesting. The Turners report an excellent crop.

Miss Marjorie Werner and her mother left Wednesday for Denver, where they will visit for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schwarz, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Frederickson and Mrs. Lilly Aiken, drove to The Dalles Sunday. Mrs. Frederickson remained there with her daughter Louise who is seriously ill at The Dalles hospital. Mrs. Aiken, visited her son Paul, who is also at the hospital, and Mr. and Mrs. Schwarz visited with Mr. and Mrs. William Schwarz of that city.

Mrs. Garnet Barratt and son Bill attended the funeral of Mancell Krebs in Arlington Wednesday morning, and then drove on to Portland.

Mrs. Lera Crawford is expected home tomorrow from Berkeley, Cal., where she has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Githens.

Hugh Gaily, Pendleton, spent from Monday to Friday last week in Heppner.

Mrs. Roger Thomas, Miss Katie Minert and Mrs. Berl Coxen and Miss Betty Coxen drove to Portland Monday, and plan to return Friday.

Only 12 American cities, including New York and San Francisco, use as much water in the course of a day as is used daily by one of the big new smokeless powder plants.

Ben E. Titus Heads Information Service

The Office of War Information today announced the appointment of Ben E. Titus as director of the news and radio bureau of OWI in Oregon.

For the past three months Titus has served as Oregon director of the information division of the Office for Emergency Management. The OEM agency was absorbed into the Office of War Information when President Roosevelt created the new office and appointed Elmer Davis as director.

The office headed by Titus, with headquarters at 713 Bedell building in Portland (telephone Atwater 7241), will clear and issue all official war information originating in war agencies in Oregon.

The news and radio bureau prepares, clears and issues news stories, radio programs, educational motion picture films, posters, charts, pamphlets, and similar material for public consumption for some fourteen war agencies, including the War Production board, Office of Price Administration, Office of Defense Transportation, War Manpower commission, War Relocation authority and the War Labor board.

HAY SCARCITY ALTERS FEED

Tillamook—A dairy feed program based on molasses and home-grown hay is being advocated by C. H. Bergstrom, county agent, because of the scarcity and high price of good alfalfa. When home-grown hay is treated with molasses and supplemented with barley, wheat, and soy bean meal, it will provide a satisfactory feed for the low production months of November, December and January, reserving the alfalfa hay for spring freshening time, says Bergstrom.

VICTIM OF RUNAWAY

Carl Harrison received treatment here Monday for several broken ribs and other injuries received when a team he was driving ran away at the Stephen Thompson ranch on Rhea creek.

17 to 50 Year Men May Enlist in Navy

The Navy is accepting enlistments of men between the ages of 17 and 50 in 55 different trades. Those men already skilled in a particular trade are enlisted with a petty officer's rating, while those who are not yet qualified are sent to the trade school of their choice, after which they receive the best training available, have the use of fine, modern equipment, and leave the Navy with a trade skill which will always be useful to them.

Men who are subject to the selective service may enlist in the Navy until the time they are actually inducted into the army. Those interested are urged to contact the Navy Recruiting Officer in Room 250, Post Office Building, Pendleton.

BROWNS RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Brown and son Frankie returned to Heppner Monday from Warrenton, where they have been located for several months while Mr. Brown was connected with the Civilian Conservation Corps camp at that place. They expect to reestablish their home here for the "duration." Mr. Brown enlisted some time ago in the naval reserves and expects to be called soon. He will enter the service as chief carpenter's mate to be assigned to foreign duty after six weeks training at Norfolk, Va. Passing through Arlington Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Brown stopped at a service station where they saw a man slumped over the wheel of a car, apparently asleep. Returning to the station a little later they were informed by an attendant that the man was dead.

Relatives have been informed that Omer McCaleb and William S. Tucker, recent inductees into the army from Morrow county, are stationed at Kearns, Utah.
