DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

At a meeting Tuesday evening final plans were made for the Union Vacation Bible School. Classes will include Bible stories and characters, memory work and music. Hand-work projects will be an attractive feature for the older groups. There will be two divisions of two classes each consisting of beginners or pre-school age through grammar school.

Classes begin Monday, August 24 in the Church of Christ basement at 9 a.m. Beginners and primaries will be dismissed at 11 a.m. and the older division at noon. School will be held five days a week for two weeks. All interested are urged to be there promptly Monday morning for registration.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Martin B. Clark, Pastor

The church has been the scene of considerable activity in the past week. Groups of men, headed by no other than that young man, Tom Humphreys, have been repairing the church roof. Tom, as the rest of the boys know him, guarantees no leaks, so there will be no excuse for you're not attending church this winter. Remember regular services in the morning but evening services are dismissed because the pastor will be at boys' camp with six of the boys of the church this Sunday. Junior Endeavor will be held at the home of Marie Barlow.

9:45 a.m., Bible school.
11:00, Communion and preaching.
6:30 p.m., Junior and senior Christian Endeavor.
7:30 p.m., Evangelistic services.
