

LOCAL ITEMS . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Thompson and children returned last week from a short vacation trip spent in Portland.

Beth Ball had the misfortune of having a horse step on her toe a week ago last Saturday at the Ball ranch, breaking the toe.

Mr. and Mrs. Burvil Corbin became the parents of a 10 pound boy August 30, born at the Corda Saling home.

Frank Monahan was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Farley, as was Mrs. Olin Applegate and baby of Hood River.

Mrs. Edna Turner, who will teach at Lexington this year, returned from Portland recently, where she had been for some time.

On Labor day the Rev. and Mrs. S. D. Spiesz, Mrs. Maggie Hunt, Mrs. Lonnie Ritchie and Mrs. Aaron Pickering and son drove to Irrigon to attend an Assembly of God monthly fellowship gathering of churches. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Nikander and children and Mr. and Mrs. John Fuiten also drove over with Mrs. Louise Ritchie and Mrs. Ora Wyland. Lunch and supper were served by the Irrigon church.

Phil Cohn and Bill Barratt left Wednesday for Portland, from where Bill will go on to Corvallis, where he will enroll at Oregon State. Bill is senior manager of the football team this year. Phil will return to Heppner the last of the week with his mother and sister, who have been in Portland this week.

Miss Esther Frick is missing from her desk at the First National Bank this week on account of illness.

Mrs. Harold Cohn and daughter Sally left Tuesday for Portland with her house guest, Mrs. C. A. Magaw, of Calexico, California, aunt of Mr. Cohn, who spent last week here.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Goheene of Portland, visited Mrs. Goheene's mother, Mrs. George Gertson, the week-end of August 29.

Mrs. Ralph Thompson and Miss Jean Hayes, who spent Labor day week-end at the Thompson home, left Monday for Portland. Jean is planning to enroll at Oregon State this week.

John Honey of Portland was in Heppner for a few days looking after business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stafford of Waterville, Wash., visited Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Case over Labor day.

Miss Juanita Phelps and Miss Helen Egan from Pendleton, spent Wednesday in Heppner.

Mrs. C. D. Nichols of Portland, sister of Tom Wells, is visiting at the Wells home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Karlik and children of Portland, visited Mr. and Mrs. George Gertson over Labor day holiday.

A letter received this week from Alden Blankenship, former Heppner superintendent of schools, read "the Gazette is just like a letter from home every week. My courses have kept me nice and busy but I still find time to enjoy New York City. It seems odd not to be headed back to Heppner and the rush of getting things ready for the opening of school."

Merline Kirk, local 16 year old girl, who has been cooking for the haying and harvesting men this season, is putting all of her earnings into bonds this summer, and has just bought her second bond, according to her mother, Mrs. Altha Kirk.

Mrs. Hugh Gailey, Mrs. John Hiatt and Mrs. L. D. Tibbles drove to Pendleton Tuesday. While there they saw Mr. Gailey, who is expecting to join the service soon.

Mrs. Kenneth House has been appointed as Heppner chairman of the Christmas tuberculosis seals, taking the place of Mrs. Chris Brown, who recently resigned.

Mrs. P. W. Mahoney returned Monday evening from Bonner's Ferry, Idaho, where she has been visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. James Valentine had as guests at their home last week-end Miss Eleanor Kent, and Mr. Valentine's nephew, Harold Graham.

Friends of little Jean Marie Graham will be glad to know that she is now allowed to walk a few steps daily.

Vera McDaniel returned home Wednesday from Ruggs where she worked this summer.

Miss Alice Patterson of Portland is visiting her sister, Mrs. Elmer Palmer.

Floyd Adams trailed their sheep home Thursday with Jim Hams and John Stevens.

Charles Maidment and son of Lonerock, stopped briefly in Hardman Sunday on their way to Nine Top where the Maidment sheep are.

John Stevens received word this week that his daughter, Mrs. Stanley Musgrave, has a baby daughter. The young lady was born Aug. 28 and has been named Miranda May.

Miss Clara Bell Adams returned to Portland after spending several weeks here visiting her parents. She will enter Oregon State college when school opens.

Mrs. C. H. McDaniel and son Everett Hadley, visited over the week-end at Arlington with Mrs. Allen Billings and daughter.

Mrs. Catherine McIntyre and daughters attended the wedding of Pat McIntyre and Genevieve Smith of Portland September 3 at the All Saints church in Portland. Pat is a well-known sheep man of Condon and Heppner. The McIntyres returned home from Portland on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Burgman of Spokane are visiting the Jay Stones at Reed's Mill over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. George Horsman of Spokane visited the Fred Reeds over the week-end. Mrs. Horsman will be remembered as Dorothy Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas left Monday for Ritter Springs where they plan to stay for 10 days. They will visit the Joe Battys at Kimberly on their way.

Lexington News

LEXINGTON, Sept. 10.—James Leach of Portland was here on business, having come by airplane to Pendleton. He was met there by A. C. Dougherty. He arrived at the airport Thursday afternoon. He visited the Barnett home over night and was taken to Pendleton Friday morning to take the plane back to Portland. This was his first airplane venture and he reported a pleasant trip.

Elmer Hunt spent the week-end with his family here from his work in Salem.

John Miller who works in Portland spent the week-end with his family here.

Carla and Sandra Whillock had their tonsils removed in Heppner Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Frederickson spent the week-end here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Phillip and daughters of Arlington were here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gibson of Hermiston spent one day here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted McDaid, daughter Silvia, and son, Eddie, of Seattle were here Monday.

Mrs. Archie Padberg and three youngest children are at the John Padberg home where Mrs. Padberg is cooking for harvesters.

Dan Dinges left Monday night for Eugene to attend college.

EASTERN STAR TO MEET

Eastern Star has regular meeting on September 11 at the Masonic temple. All members are urged to be present.

BETTER FOODS

-- for better Americans

The Government is asking you to eat the right foods. And, as Mrs. Home-maker, it is urging you to see that your family gets balanced diets and proper nutrition.

Get best quality foods from the Central Market

STAR Reporter

FRIDAY-SATURDAY

Danger In the Pacific

Andy Devine, Leo Carrillo, Don Terry

Outdoor action drama with war background.

—Plus—

The Mad Martindales

Jane Withers, Marjorie Weaver, Alan Mowbray, Jimmy Lydon

Events keep rolling entertainingly as the daughter of an improvident architect sets out to adjust their troubles.

SUNDAY-MONDAY

My Favorite Blonde

Bob Hope, Madeleine Carroll, Gale Sondergaard, Percy (The Penguin)

With Carroll and Hope being followed by spies, it's laughs every second for you gals and guys!

TUESDAY

Bargain Night

Affairs of Jimmy Valentine

Dennis O'Keefe, Rath Terry

Melodrama with good mystery trend and enough good comedy and romance to please all who see it.

Adults 25c Children 10c

WEDNESDAY-THURSDAY

Always In My Heart

Walter Huston, Kay Francis, Borrah Minnevitch and His Rascals and introducing Gloria Warren, a grand new personality, in the year's surprise entertainment treat!

Hardman News . . .

By Elsa M. Leathers

HARDMAN, Sept. 10.—High school opened Monday with Carol Robe principal and Mrs. Elaine Robe assisting. Four freshmen entered: Jennette Renoe, Delmar Buschke, Owen Leathers, Jr., Cecil McDaniel. Maxine McDaniel and Alene Inskeep are juniors.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Buschke and family moved into town for school from Bull Prairie and Mr. and Mrs. Oren McDaniel and family from Burton Valley.

C. C. Conrad and Raymond Pettyjohn spent Wednesday and Thursday in this district burning Canadian thistle.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ely of Kennewick, Wash., visited his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ely, here over Sunday evening and took them to Touchet, Wash., where they will visit for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Neil of Heppner, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Moore visited the Neal Knights here Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Reed and Roxie Lovgren were business visitors in Heppner Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Leathers and Jean and Miss Vera McDaniel went to Pendleton to consult an optician Saturday.

Mrs. Grace Buschke is assisting the Knights at the Satisfaction Cereal Mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Carlson went to Walla Walla Saturday from Tupper 'guard' station where they attended to business.

Your own judgment says it's true . . .
Be wise and "follow through!" . . .

MORE PEOPLE GO TO CHEVROLET DEALERS FOR SERVICE THAN TO ANY OTHER DEALER ORGANIZATION

Headquarters for VICTORY SERVICE
on
ALL MAKES OF CARS AND TRUCKS

Because Chevrolet dealers have sold more new cars and trucks—more used cars and trucks—and have had broader experience in servicing all makes and models during the last ten years—than any other dealer organization.

SAVE THE WHEELS THAT SERVE AMERICA

FERGUSON MOTOR COMPANY

Heppner

Oregon