Curfew, Parking Regulations to Be Enforced By City

At the regular meeting of the Heppner City Council on the 5th day of October, 1942, the Chief of Police and assistant Police were instructed to enforce the curfew ordinance, which requires that all persons under the age of 16 years shall not be upon the city streets between 9:00 P. M. and 6 A. M., unless accompanied by parent or guardian, or except in going to or from picture show, school work, or school entertainment. The ordinance provides a penalty on parents or guardian for a second infraction.

A resolution was passed by the Council authorizing the police to create restricted parking zones for large trucks. Hereafter, no truck, larger than a pick up, shall park on Main Street between May Street and Center Street, or on Willow Street between Gale and Chase Street, or on Court Street immediately in front of the Court House except for the purpose of loading or unloading. A fine up to $500.00 may be imposed for infraction of this ordinance and the police are instructed to erect appropriate signs to indicate the restricted parking zones. In lieu of the restricted parking areas, large trucks are urged to park on open city lots south and west of the Creamery, on Chase and Center Streets.

Lonely Lookout Pens His Lament

Life of a lonely lookout is graphically portrayed in poetic form by Clarence V. Wise, who, in a letter to F. F. Wehmeyer enclosed a verse expressing his views. The "Lookout's Lament," as he terms it, was written in the roof of the 100-foot steel tower on Tamarack mountain, where the lookout sits all day scanning an area larger than some European nations, keeping a watch from daylight to dark, day after day, in solitude but alertness for that greatest of enemies to forest land—fire.

The poem is so apropos that Wehmeyer thought GT readers would enjoy it.

LOOKOUTS LAMENT

Here's to the guy, the daffy bloke
Who sits all day and looks for smoke,
His patience gone, his pants worn thin
As he sits all day in his house of tin.
He prays for rain when the days are warm,
But all he gets is a lightning storm.
Coffee gone—grub run down;
It's been six weeks since he's been to town;
He'd like a drink or to see a show,
But he knows d-- well he's a month to go.
He gets his water from the Lord knows where;
All that's handy is a lot of air;
His visitors few and far between,
Is it a wonder he'd like to scream?
Now is he glad when the season "finally in?"
No, he hates to leave his house of tin.

MAIL SOLDIERS' XMAS GIFTS BEFORE NOVEMBER 1.

READ THE RULES—The following rules, issued by the Postoffice Department in cooperation with the Army Postal Service of the War Department, apply to the mailing of Christmas parcels for members of our Armed Forces serving outside the continental limits of the United States.

TIME OF MAILING—Christmas parcels and greeting cards should be mailed during the period beginning October 1 and ending November 1, 1942, the earlier the better. Each package should be endorsed "Christmas Parcel." Special effort will be made for delivery in time for Christmas.

SIZE AND WEIGHT—Christmas parcels shall not exceed 11 pounds in weight, or 18 inches in length or 42 inches in length and girth combined. However, the public has been urged to cooperate by voluntarily restricting parcels to the size of an ordinary shoe box and the weight to six pounds.

USE CARE IN PREPARATION—Remembering the great distance this mail will be transported and the necessary storage and frequent handling, it is absolutely necessary that articles be packed in substantial boxes or containers and be covered with wrappers of sufficient strength to resist pressure of other mail. Each parcel is subject to censorship and delay may be minimized by securing covering to permit ready inspection of contents.

PROHIBITED MATTER—Intoxicants, inflammable materials, poisons or compositions likely to damage mails are unmailable. No perishable matter should be included in parcels.

HOW TO ADDRESS PARCELS—Addresses must be legible. Parcels addressed to overseas Army personnel should show in addition to the full name and address of the sender, the name rank, Army serial number, branch of service, organization, A.P.O. number of the addressee and the postoffice through which parcels are to be routed. Units located within the continental United States may be addressed direct, using name, rank, organization and location.

POSTAGE MUST BE FULLY PREPAID—The rate on parcels of fourth-class matter (exceeding eight ounces) being the zone rate applicable from the postoffice where mailed to the postoffice in the care of which parcels are addressed.

GREETING MESSAGES PERMISSIBLE—Inscriptions such as "Merry Christmas", "Don't open until Christmas" and the like may be placed on the covering of the parcel if it does not interfere with the address. Cards may be enclosed and books may bear a simple dedicatory inscription.

INSURANCE AND REGISTRY—Gifts of value should be insured. Articles of small size and considerable value should be sealed and sent as first-class registered mail.

MONEY ORDERS—The Army Postal Service recommends use of postal money orders to transmit gifts of money to members of Armed Forces outside the United States. These are cashed at A.P.O. in local foreign currency at rate of exchange on date of presentation.
