If each of the 31 million U. S. families bought one less can of canned goods per week, the steel saved would meet steel requirements of 5,000 medium tanks, there would be tin for 360,000 75mm. howitzers, rubber for 2,000 jeeps.

District Meets to Replace Annual College Confab

The annual December conference of all extension and experiment station agricultural and home economics workers at Oregon State college has been abandoned this year because of time, transportation, and housing difficulties, William A. Schoenfeld, dean and director of agriculture, has just announced.

In place of the annual conference will be four brief district conferences in as many parts of the state. All county agents, home demonstration agents, and branch experiment station personnel will attend the district conference nearest them, Dean Schoenfeld explained. Places and dates for the district conferences, with counties affected, follow:

Corvallis, December 11 and 12—Coos Curry, Douglas, Lane, Linn, Benton, Polk, and Lincoln.

Klamath Falls, December 14 and 15—Josephine, Jackson, Jefferson, Lake, Klamath Harney, Crook and Deschutes.

Portland, December 16 and 17—Marion, Clatsop, Yamhill, Wash-Hood River, Columbia and Tillamook, Clackamas, Multnomah, Clatsop.

La Grande December 18 and 19—Wallowa, Baker, Union, Malheur, Grant, Wasco, Umatilla, Morrow, Gilliam, Wheeler and Sherman.
