

Our Men In Service

William T. McRoberts, stepson of Mrs. Stella Devin, a former Heppner youth, was graduated from the Victorville Army Flying school at Victorville, Calif., on Nov. 21, 1942. He finished the course for bombardier, and has been commissioned a 2nd lieutenant in the Army Air force.

Prior to his induction at Portland in April of this year he held a position with the Bonneville power administration and was in line for appointment to the police force of that city. He graduated from Heppner high school with the class of 1936.

Pfc John McNamee writes his mother, Mrs. Anna McNamee from sea to report his new address, New York City, care of postmaster. He sends greetings to all his friends.

Staff Sgt. Edward L. Hunt has been moved from Fort Douglas, and now gets his mail in care of postmaster, New York City.

Two little Morrow county boys think they have a mighty fine soldier uncle. This week Bobby and Jerry Buschke each received a $25 bond from their uncle, Pfc. Lawrence Becket, who is stationed with Co. Z, 19th Infantry in Hawaii. The bonds came as Christmas gifts. Lawrence joined up in April. His mail reaches him through APO 24 San Francisco.

A DAUGHTER IS BORN
A nine and three-quarter pound girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Evans Nov. 24. Mother and child are at the Heppner hospital. The baby has been named Mary Emma. Restrictions of the production of safety razors, blades, and straight razors will save upwards of 800 tons of high-grade steel.

the time there was a yearning for the little eastern Oregon town and finally, in 1897, he returned and worked for Minor Bros. (W. O. and C. A. Minor). In 1899, he and W. R. Irwin bought the interest of C. A. Minor and the new firm of Minor & Co. was established. The business was located in the room now occupied by the M. D. Clark store, where it remained until 1901, when the I. O. O. F. building was completed and the firm took a lease on the entire lower floor.

In 1906, Irwin and Clark bought W. O. Minor's interest and continued operation of Minor & Co. until 1924 when the partnership was dissolved, Clark retaining the business and moving back to the original location.

Disposal of the grocery department has an interesting sidelight. It will give Will Ball the first real vacation he has had in 43 years. "Bally" as he is familiarly called, joined the firm of Irwin and Clark in 1899 and with the exception of one year when he took over and disposed of the stock of the T. R. Howard store following the Heppner flood, he has been "counter jumping" for M. D. Clark. Ball says he's going to forget about groceries, for the time being at least, and see what it is like to spend time as he sees fit.

Clark says he expects to remain in Heppner where he and Mrs. Clark have their home. They may make occasional trips to visit their children but have no desire to leave here permanently.

support that comes from the sale of Christmas seals," she concluded.

The local health unit has expressed the hope that the response will be prompt so that the campaign may be closed at the earliest possible moment.

SPECIAL PROGRAM

A special program followed with refreshments will feature the regular meeting of Ruth chapter of the Eastern Star Friday evening, announces Mrs. Ella Bengé, worthy matron. One meeting night each year is set aside for observance of the Masonic home and all members of the order are asked to remember the occasion and be on hand, Mrs. Bengé states.

Dr. J. P. Stewart Eye-Sight specialist of Pendleton will be at the HEPNER HOTEL on WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2.

RECREATION ROOM FURNITURE COMING IN—BUT SLOWLY

A few pieces of furniture have been received at the corner room in the Masonic building in Heppner, destined for the soldiers' recreation room at Boardman. So far the contribution includes a couple of chairs and a table.

It may be that other articles are available but the owners may lack transportation facilities. If that is the case an effort should be made to contact Bill Morgan who will call for them.

So far the boys recreation room is bare and uninviting. Perhaps, if you look around your home more you will find an article or so of comfort that will give you much pleasure to contribute to the room to add a bit of homelike atmosphere for the boys in their leisure moments. Be assured that your gifts will be greatly appreciated by every mother's son of them.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Irene Laughlin and little son returned Sunday night from Pendleton where Bobby was a patient in the hospital for several days. The little fellow was suffering from a glandular infection, but is quite himself once more.
