MUSIC STUDY CLUB HAS DINNER MEETING

Music Study club gathered for a no-hostess dinner Tuesday night honoring Lt. Rose Leibbrand, a visiting member. Clever table favors of paper WAAC caps had been made by Margaret Wright and Frances Weaver.

Following dinner the group re-assembled at the J. O. Turner home for the business meeting and study hour.

Arrangements were made for a Community sing to replace the regular vesper service. Some dissatisfaction was reported over the Sunday vespers so the club decided to try out the Community Sing idea. The third Monday night each month appears to have the fewest conflicts so it has been decided upon. A meeting place will be announced next week.

Members of the Book Worms club had been invited and several were present including Mrs. L. E. Dick, Mrs. J. G. Thomson, Jr., Mrs. C. W. McNamer and Miss Lulu Hager. Another guest was Mrs. Francis W. McReynolds of Klamath Falls.

The following program under the leadership of Lela Peterson was presented.

Life sketches of Arthur and Ethelbert Nevin, Margaret Wright; Solo, "Little Boy Blue" Viola Crawford, Violin solo, "The Rosary" Irene Dudley Buck and John Alden Wilson. Carpenter were reviewed by Martha Martin.

Evelyn Youngberg sketched the careers of Frank La Forge and James H. Rogers. Lucy Peterson sang "The Star" by Rogers and "The Cry of Rachel" by Mary Turner Salter.

Gershwin was presented by Rose Hoosier who sang "Summertime" from his opera "Porgy and Bess."

The evening's study of modern American composers ended with an explanation of Ferde Grope's "Grand Canyon Suite" with the presentation of the recordings, by Frances Weaver.

In a census bureau survey of 137 metropolitan counties between April 1, 1940 and May 1, 1942, 88 counties having war industries gained a total of 2,639,000 persons, while 43 without war industries showed a decline in population.

BETTY HAPPOLD BRIDE OF JAMES W. BRADFORD

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Happold announce the marriage of their daughter, Betty M., to Mr. James W. Bradford at 8 o'clock p. m., Dec. 31, 1942. The ceremony was performed at the home of Harley H. Hall with Dr. Perry C. Hopper officiating. The young couple will live in Portland.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Floyd E. Dorris, Jr., matron of honor, and William Rathman was best man. Miss Shirley Sutton sang Bond's "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Diane Hall. Twenty-five guests witnessed the ceremony and attended the reception at the Hall home.

The bride is a graduate of Heppner high school and attended Oregon State college two years where she was affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta.

Mr. and Mrs. Happold attended the ceremony and spent a few days in the city returning home Monday.

Workers in occupied Holland don't answer advertisements featuring attractive jobs in Russian Ukraine, with "room, board and clothing free."

Mrs. Francis W. McReynolds of Klamath Falls has been a guest since New Years eve at the home of her father, T. E. Peterson. Mr. McReynolds enlisted in the navy last March and went over seas in April as a member of the navy "scabees". Mrs. McReynolds plans to accompany her uncle, Henry Peterson, to the legislature for the session before returning to Klamath Falls.

In 1943, it is estimated there will be only five-eighths as many tires, including recaps, available for autos as the normal demand for new tires.
