

IONE NEWS NOTES

Cooperative Church Holds Annual Meet

By Mrs. Omar Rietmann

The Ione Co-operative church held its annual meeting in the Congregational church parlors Sunday Feb. 7. After a pot luck dinner the business meeting was held, with the following results: Rev. J. F. Stilwell was retained for another year; the members elected to the church board were, Mrs. Anna Smouse, Mrs. Della Corson, Mrs. Mattie Ray, Mrs. Ollie Engleman, and E. M. Baker. Two more members are to be elected later. The deacons elected were E. M. Baker and James Warfield; the deaconesses were Mrs. Corson, Mrs. Engleman and Mrs. McMurray; pianist and janitor were left for the board to select.

Word was received recently that Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse of Portland became the parents of a six pound, 15 ounce son Jan. 11. The young man has been named Kenneth Lynn.

Mrs. I. R. Robinson is recovering from injuries to her ankle and knee suffered in a fall during the recent icy weather.

Mrs. Elmo McMillan of Salem is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swanson.

The sophomore class were hosts at a farewell party for Maxine Allyn Tuesday evening at the Legion hall. About 30 young people enjoyed an evening of dancing. Refreshments of ice cream and cookies were served.

The recent thaw caused considerable damage to the road to the cemetery. Quite a quantity of water came down the Rietmann grade and flooded the streets in the lower part of Ione. Several inches of water were reported in the Grange hall.

Chas. D. Botts is reported improving from a recent illness.

John Hughes is visiting friends in Ione.

Mrs. Ida Fletcher received word that her son Lloyd Fletcher has been released from the army to go into defense work in Portlan. Lloyd is among those in the group above 38 years of age.

The missionary meeting at the Congregationa church Thursday, Jan. 28 began the year's study of the Latin American countries. Refreshments were served by Mrs. John Bryson.

The Fellowship meeting of section 8 of Oregon Assembly of God was held Feb. 10 at the Pentecost mission in Ione. Three meetings were held at 10:30 a. m., 2:30 and 7:30 p. m., with pot luck meals at noon and evening. Rev. Sterl Spiesz of Heppner who is the district presbyter was in charge.

The union prayer meetings are being held every Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the Baptist church.

Mrs. William Padberg has been spending a few days with her brother, Willard Blake who is improving and was able to be up in a wheel chair Sunday.

Word was received that Glen Warfield and Robert Wagner have finished their marine training at San Diego and have been transferred over seas.

Mrs. Lloyd Morgan and little daughter Judith Irene have returned from Heppner and are being cared for at the E. R. Lundell home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Allyn and Maxine moved their household goods to Portland Thursday, Feb. 4.

Mrs. Della Nance accompanied Mr. Ring to Portland and went on by bus to McMinnville to consult her physician. She returned Saturday evening.

The Ione basketball teams played Heppner here Tuesday and Lexington at Lexington Friday. In the Heppner game Ione lost 47-26 and the second team lost 17-15. At Lexington the Ione first team lost 20 to 16, the second team won 37 to 10 and the Ione grade team lost 11 to 10.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rice an 8 pound son Feb. 3 at The Dalles.

Miss Freda M. Rice of Oakland, Calif. has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rice. Miss Rice is employed in the telephone exchange at Oakland.

E. J. Bristow has been absent from his store the last week due to illness. He was taken to Hood River Sunday to consult his physician.

Miss Hazel Adkins who was called home by the death of her father, R. E. Driscoll of Heppner spent a few days with her sister Mrs. Leo Gorger.

Donald Gorger, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gorger has returned home from the hospital at Pendleton where he underwent an appendectomy.

Mrs. Howard Eubanks was taken to the hospital at Pendleton Friday where it was found she is suffering from an abscess on her hip.

George Reno came up from Portland for a few days. After transacting some business he will return to his work.

Mrs. C. W. Barton of Portland is visiting her mother, Mrs. Lana

Padberg.

Mr. and Mrs. James Warfield and David spent Sunday at Pasco visiting Mrs. Warfield's parentst, Mr. and Mrs. Stone, and her sister, Mrs. E. K. Heag and family.

It is reported that Krieb's Brothers have lambed over 1200 lambs to date.

Mrs. Gussie Gustfuson and Mrs. Annie Nichols of Sumner, Ida., are here visiting their brother, J. E. Swanson.

Archie Ball brought a band of Phil Mahoney's sheep to the Laxton McMurray ranch where they will be fed until they are returned to the Mahoney ranch for lambing.

A section crew has been put on the Ione section of the branch line. J. E. Gerdes, foreman of the crew and his family are living in the Park apartments.

MAKE SHORT VISIT

Gerald Rood and his sister Betty, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walt Rood, paid Heppner a short visit the first of the week, leaving Wednesday to visit their parents who reside in the Ritter section of Grant county. Gerald has finished training in a school for mechanics in Chicago and holds the rating of Master Mechanic in the navy. He is now stationed at San Iego. Betty is engaged in defense work at Bremerton, Wash.

ON BUSINESS

Holmes Gabbert, representing the Master Engravers of Portland, was a Heppner business visitor Wednesday. He was interviewing student body officials at the high school relative to the production of the 1943 yearbook, the Hehisch. Gabbert is a Morrow county tax payer, owning a ranch in the Ione section.

MAKES SIGNAL CORPS

Ray Pettyjohn, who was inducted the middle of January, was one of 9 chosen from a class of 285 taking the examination for the signal corps to be sent to St. Petersburg, Fla., for intensive training. Ray formerly worked for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. He is a brother of Mrs. Harold Sherer of Heppner.

IN TOWN SATURDAY

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Valentine were in town Saturday, the first time in three weeks they could negotiate the road from their house to the highway.

BACK FROM CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Tom Wells returned Monday evening from an enjoyable trip to California where she met her husband and visited with him a few days. Tom, member of the naval CB's recently arrived on the coast after taking a three months training course at Norfolk, Va. Mrs. Wells visited other members of her family while in the south.

New Fashions For Spring

Easter is late, but you'll want to look over our

*New Spring
Suits, Coats and Dresses*

early while our selection is complete

Spring Casuals

Your pride and joy—as new as the first crocuses of spring!

CURRAN'S
Ready-to-Wear

Last Call

for new 1943
Bulk
Wheat
Storage Buildings

—Only 20 weeks left until harvest—

Time for our plan department to prepare necessary quantity

..... 1 week
Average tim for application for permission to build..... 6 weeks
Time to assmble materials.....3 weeks
Time left to build (almost too short) 10 weeks

---BETTER SEE US TODAY---

Tum-a-Lum
Lumber Company
Heppner, Oregon

Don't Let Shoe Rationing Bother You

Three pairs of shoes will be ample for any man who buys them from our stock....

The average customer of our store finds it unnecessary to buy more than two or three pairs of shoes annually—and they are always well shod.

Take our advice---Buy here and rationing will not bother you....

Wilson's Men's Wear