RECEIVES MENTION ON

WINTER TERM HONOR ROLL

Modora J. Huston, Ione, recently qualified for mention on the winter term honor roll at the University of Oregon by making a grade point average of 3.5 or over, half A and half B grades, last term.

Winter term scholarship at the University of Oregon showed a distinct improvement over that of fall term, Clifford L. Constance, assistant registrar, announced recently. Of the enrolled 2,593 students, 166 or six percent placed on the winter term honor roll in comparison with five percent for fall.

Two Ways to Make Those Precious Points Go Farther

First: Select as many foods as possible not under the point system. There are numerous appetizing and nourishing items on our shelves and counters from which tasty meals may be gotten together. It may involve rearranging your menus to attain proper balance, but it will prove valuable.

Second: You will profit by spending those precious points where your money will obtain greater value quality of goods purchased. We have selected our stocks with that object in view—none but the best! You can afford to buy no other kind.

It is a pleasure to help you make your selection.
