

BOARDMAN NEWS

Greenfield Grange Burns Mortgage

By MARGARET THORPE

Greenfield grange met Saturday with a regular business meeting followed by burning of the mortgage. The state master, Morton Tompkins, gave a very interesting talk; a poem was read by Mrs. Ella McDonald, her own composition, entitled "The Burning of the Mortgage." "Stars of the Summer Night" was sung by a quartet consisting of Russell Miller, Francis Harter, Frances Skoubo and Margaret Thorpe, accompanied by Hazel Miller. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wicklander, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lundell and Mr. and Mrs. George Corwin of Heppner were other guests who also gave short talks.

Miss Betty Nolt left for her home in Portland after spending a week with her aunt, Mrs. Frances Harter.

Nate Macomber returned Sunday from Wheeler where he had spent two weeks undergoing treatments for arthritis.

Mrs. Ed Kintzie is in Portland visiting her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed McClellan.

Don Ford had the misfortune to wreck the truck with which he was hauling wheat the day before he was to report at Pendleton for his physical exams. Both rear tires blew out at once, throwing Don to one side when it hit the bank hardly a second before the steering wheel was rammed to the back of the seat where he was sitting. Although the truck was a total wreck Don was fortunate to get out with only a few scratches and bruises. In spite of it all, the doctor told him he would make a good soldier when he reported for his exam.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Skoubo received word that Edward who is at New Guinea was operated on for appendicitis on March 4. He is recovering rapidly.

Mrs. Walpole attended a Ladies Aid meeting in Umatilla Thursday.

Mrs. Grace Forbes came from The Dalles Friday to move some more of her things and brought Lawrence up to work for Paul Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Root, motored to Walla Walla Friday. Mrs. Ed Barlow worked in the post office during their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Kristensen and Elizabeth spent Wednesday in Pendleton shopping. Buddy spent the day with Mrs. Harter.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Harter spent Saturday in Pendleton shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Disbrow of Mullan, Ida, stopped overnight at the Russell Miller home Monday. Mrs. Disbrow is Mr. Miller's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. John Partlow have installed an electric water system and bath room this week.

Mrs. Arthur Allen left the first of the week for Tacoma where Mr. Allen is working.

Miss Elaine Fisher is working in the office of Hall & Compton after school and on Saturdays.

Claude Coats is confined to his home with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harwood and Mrs. Jenkins left Friday for Portland. Mrs. Jenkins went on by train to visit Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bradley.

Albert Partlow is spending a few days at the home of his parents.

Hardman News

Ted Burnside Laid To Rest Tuesday

By Mrs. Elsa Leathers

Friends and relatives were shocked to hear of the sudden passing of Ted Burnside at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burnside on Saturday evening. The funeral service was held in the Community church Tuesday afternoon with Rev. Martin B. Clark of Heppner officiating. Interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Robinson were very proud to hear their son Creston has been promoted to sergeant. He has been stationed at Pendleton Field.

Mrs. Ella Bleakman and son Buster returned home from Spray after spending a week with the Earl Reddings.

Mrs. Neal Knighten and children spent the week-end in Heppner with Mrs. L. D. Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bechdolt returned to their homes at Boardman after spending a week here with their son Archie.

Don Zornes left here Wednesday going to Naches, Wash. to fetch his horses for logging.

R. J. Underwood is visiting at Cheney and Spokane Wash. this week. Mrs. Jay Stone and son Dicky and Mrs. Harry Davis and daughter accompanied him and are also visiting in Spokane.

Ed McDaniel visited in Heppner several days this week with his daughter, Mrs. Victor Lovgren.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel Jr. and Mrs. Victor Lovgren visited in Hardman Sunday from Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Duff McKittrich were in town from Spray getting a load of their furniture.

Mrs. Walter Wright was the first to put in garden this week.

Albert Greener of Hillsboro was an over night visitor with his brother Bill Friday. Bill Greener and Henry Coats left Monday morning for Hillsboro to spend the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reed spent the week-end at Spokane on business.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Robinson moved Saturday to the E. E. Rugg ranch on Rhea creek where they will live.

Mrs. Joe Batty and Mrs. Kenneth Batty and son Gilbert visited the Dalles Crabers Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Craber and child visited his parents, the Ed Crabers, from The Dalles over the week-end.

Mrs. Owen Leathers and Beverly Maness visited Saturday night with the Victor Lovgrens in Heppner returning home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hastings and girls of Heppner visited Uncle Sam and Aunt Hattie McDaniel Sunday.

Pic Vester Hamme of the mountain infantry from Camp Hale,

Colo. is home on a 15 day furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hams, and his wife and new son, Vester Wayne who arrived on the first day of spring.

ON BUSINESS VISIT

Leo Gorgor and family of Ione were Heppner business visitors Wednesday.

A woman tube mouter in a war plant perfected a process in making power tubes that saves valuable material and 400 man-hours annually.

Restriction in the use of iron and steel in wood furniture is saving about 22,000 tons of the metal for war use annually.

LIVESTOCK SALE!

At Runnion's Corrals Heppner

Starting at 1 p.m. Sharp, Saturday,

APRIL 3, 1943

We will offer at Public Auction

100 Head of Cows and Calves

These cattle are good stock animals--most of them Herefords. Majority are 2-3-4 year olds heavy springers and calving now.

90 Head of Hogs

A few Bulls, Milk Cows and Horses will be offered at this sale. Anybody having livestock for sale is invited to enter such stock at this sale.

Terms: CASH

V. R. RUNNION, Auctioneer

HARRY DINGES, Clerk