More Water Granted For Victory Gardens

By MRS. OMAR RIETMANN
In the interest of Victory gardens the city council of Ione has granted an additional 2000 gallons of water on the minimum rate. Also measures were considered to prevent animals running at large and to abate the dog nuisance if possible.

Mrs. Charles Reno of Hardman and Miss Lucille Reno of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buchanan last week.

The mumps have been taking toll in the primary room the last couple of weeks. Mrs. June O'Connor and about half of the class have been absent. Mrs. Verl Fredrickson of Heppner has been taking Mrs. O'Connors' place.

Ralph Akers, who suffered a stroke last week has been moved to Heppner hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Akers of Portland arrived Monday evening.

John Clark was taken to Heppner hospital Thursday and later to St. Anthony hospital in Pendleton where it was decided an operation was necessary. His brothers Henry and Will spent Saturday with him.

The Ione P. T. A. will meet at the school house Wednesday, April 21. There will be a talk on organized recreation. It is hoped there will be a representative of each of the organizations in Ione present so that a start can be made in this work.

Bobby Rietmann had the misfortune to cut his hand badly last Friday morning when splitting wood. He was taken to Heppner where it was necessary to take several stitches in his hand to close the wound.

Mr. and Mrs. Erling Thompson of McMinnville were Ione visitors Saturday and Sunday. They are former Ione residents. While here they were guests at the J. F. Stilwell home.

The Ione school band program and basket social Friday evening were well attended. Although there were not many baskets the bidding was sometimes quite lively and $33.90 was realized. After supper the young people enjoyed dancing to the music of the Ione orchestra under the direction of Selmer Severson.

Floyd Wiles arrived home Sunday from Camp Carson, Colo. where he was honorably discharged from the army as he is in the over age group.

Harvey Ring was injured when he fell from the top of the rack of his truck Sunday. No bones were broken but he was badly shaken up.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gerdes have moved into Mrs. Clara Kincaid's house on Second street. Mr. Gerdes is the foreman of the section crew. They lived for several years at Condon.

Wm. Hays was hurt last week when branding calves at the Carl Feldman ranch. He was kicked in the chin by a calf and six stitches were needed to repair the damage.

The missionary society of the Swedish Lutheran church will hold a meeting at 2 p. m. April 18, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterson.

The Topic club meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry Gorger was attended by 14 members and 2 visitors. The book "Look to the Mountains" by LaGrand Cannon, Jr., was reviewed by Mrs. Elmer Griffith and Mrs. Gorger. Mrs. Gene Inskip assisted the hostess in place of Mrs. Echo Palmateer who was ill with the mumps.

Mrs. Martin Cotter and Mrs. Werner Rietmann were shoppers in Pendleton last Friday.

Mrs. Clifford Yarnell were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Yarnell Sunday. Afterwards they drove to Portland on a business trip.

Mrs. Frank Engleman is reported improving after her recent illness.

The Young Womens' auxiliary of the Co-operative church held their first meeting at the home of Mrs. Donald Helicker. Nine young women were present. Mrs. Erling Thompson acted as temporary chairman. Mrs. Helicker was made president and Mrs. Roy Lindstrom secretary-treasurer. The next meeting will be May 8 at the Congregational church parlor with Mrs. Ruby Kincaid and Mrs. Beverley Parsegian as hostesses. The regular meeting day is to be the second Saturday in each month.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Baker and daughter Esther of Walla Walla, Wash., Mrs. Octa Markham of Free-water and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettjohn and son of Hermiston were Sunday guests at the E. R. Lundell home. Other guests at dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morgan and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Draka and family of Ione.

Mrs. Ina Bartlemay of Meecham arrived Monday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan, Sr.

Robert Smith accompanied by his daughter Bonny and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Harvey Smith left Friday for Camp Lewis to visit Mrs. Smith's brother, Sgt. Vance Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Padberg

Mrs. Bernice Harris and Mrs. Beverley Parsegian have been secured as librarians in the Ione library.

That new cooking range, whether it be gas, electric or otherwise, is something to look forward to when the War is won. But you can start saving now to buy it. Put a definite amount, every payday, ten percent of your pay check into War Bonds today.

When your Bonds mature you will have the money ready for that new range. You will have made a good investment, getting back $4 for every $3. And your purchase of War Bonds is helping that boy, husband or sweetheart on the fighting front.
