Floyd Adams Laid To Rest Sunday

The sudden passing of Floyd N. Adams, whose body was found Thursday night beside the tractor he had been operating in his field, was a distinct shock to neighbors and friends throughout this section of the county. He had been feeling badly for only a day and night.

Funeral services, attended by a large concourse of neighbors and friends, were held from the Episcopal church in Heppner at 3:30 p. m. Sunday, April 18, with Ven. Eric O. Robathan of Pendleton officiating. Mrs. Ture Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. J. O. Turner at the organ, sang "The Rosary" and "A Perfect Day." A large floral display was mute evidence of the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Pall bearers included Jim Hams and Harold Stevens of Hardman; Kenneth Batty of Kimberley; P. W. Mahoney and L. E. Bisbee of Heppner, and Joe Belanger of Hermiston. Interment was in Heppner Masonic cemetery.

Floyd Nelson Adams was a native of the Hardman district, his parents being John A. and Laura Adams, pioneers of that section. He was a graduate of Oregon State college and had been a successful farmer in the county for many years. Surviving are the wife and three daughters, Clara-Bell, junior at Oregon State college, Betty Jane and Nancy Jean; a brother, Belva

Adams of Walla Walla, and a sister, Mrs. Etta Rau of Tacoma.

A business transaction of interest this week at Hardman was the sale of the ranch property of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Knighten to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stevens. The Stevenses plan to move on the place at once and have already begun farming it.

John Stevens received from the war department this week the congressional medal of honor, the Purple Heart, awarded posthumously to his son, Cpl James A. Stevens, for bravery in action in the Tunisian campaign in which he lost his life Feb. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hams received word that their son, Pfc Darold O. Hams, was in Iran. He said he had had two letters from his mother as well as some papers, all of which were greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Dallas Craber has been ill and is at Mrs. John Bergstrom's home in Heppner receiving medical attention. Mrs. George Thomas is caring for her small son, Donald, at the ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Saling and children were visiting in Hardman Wednesday from Pendleton. Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald accompanied them from Heppner.

Little Sally Palmer, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Palmer, is quite ill with pneumonia this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Leathers called on Harry French Wednesday afternoon. Mr. French is still badly crippled with rheumatism but was managing his chores alone.

Mrs. Darrel Harris was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Craber, this week from the Scripsmeier mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Musgrave of Top and small daughter Miranda visited at the John Stevens home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mahon moved to Reed's mill this week where Mr. Mahon will work during the summer.

Sam McDaniel Jr., Everett Hadley and Fred Reed were Pendleton visitors Saturday.

Alvin Byer of Portland arrived Saturday night to make his home with Mr. and Mrs. Neal Knighten.

Mr. and Mrs. Carol V. Robe visited relatives at Kinzua over the week-end.

A very large crowd of people from Eight Mile, Rhea Creek and Hardman attended the funeral services for Floyd N. Adams in Heppner Sunday.

DRIVE TO THE DALLES

Mrs. M. L. Hinshaw and Mrs. Leonard Schwarz were business visitors in The Dalles Monday.

From where I sit . . .

by Joe Marsh

Grandma Hoskins knows a lot about history but when we asked her where the first brewery was built in America, she wouldn't take sides.

"You see," says Grandma, "wherever the colonists settled, one of the first things they thought about was food and beer . . . In fact, one reason why the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock was because the Mayflower was runnin' short of beer."

Well, that was a new one on us, but Grandma showed it to us

—just as it was written in the Mayflower's log.

And it seems that all through our early American history beer sort of tempered the hardships and helped to make us a tolerant, moderate people.

From where I sit, beer is the American drink of moderation and friendliness—kind of a symbol of our personal liberty.

THE 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

Come on,
Let's WIN this war!

If we should lose the war, life would not be worth living.

"But we won't lose it," you may say.

Listen, brother—in this world nothing's sure, unless you make it so.

This month it's up to us here at home to do our part, and then some, to make Victory surer—and quicker! To do it, we've got to lend Uncle Sam 13 billion extra dollars.

It isn't easy—but war isn't easy and Victory isn't cheap. It takes money—and more money—to buy planes, ships, tanks, guns and a million other things our boys must have to deliver that final, paralyzing knock-out punch.

And it's a whale of a lot easier for us at home to lend our money than for our boys to fight through the hardships and dangers of deserts, swamps, jungles, ice-fields and sub-infested seas!

Just think! Every extra bond you buy will help provide the weapons to save the lives of many American boys! Isn't that alone worth every effort, every economy you can make? You bet it is!

There are 7 types of U. S. Government securities to meet the needs of every purse. They offer the finest investment in the world—liberal interest, plus securities guaranteed by Uncle Sam himself.

A volunteer worker for the 2nd War Loan Drive may visit you soon. Welcome this unselfish patriot—and buy all the bonds you can. But don't wait for that call. Go—today—to your bank, investment dealer, broker, post office or bond booth and invest to your uttermost limit. Even if it hurts, it's nothing compared to the agonizing impact of a bayonet thrust, a flesh-tearing torpedo fragment or a bone-crushing bullet.

So dig deep, brother, and do it NOW!

There are 7 different types of U. S. Government securities—choose the ones best suited for you!

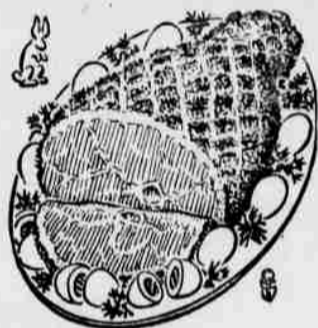

THEY GIVE THEIR LIVES . . . YOU LEND YOUR MONEY!
