ARRIVES FROM ASHLAND

Mrs. B. C. Forsythe arrived in Heppner Monday from Ashland to join Mr. Forsythe and other members of her family. Mr. and Mrs. Forsythe will make their home in Ione where he is in charge of the Standard Oil plant. Their son, Lt. Jack Forsythe, arrived in Heppner Saturday evening from Texas where he completed his navigating course the past week and is enjoying a ten-day visit with his wife, parents and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dick. He has received orders to report at Ephrata, Wash., at the expiration of his leave.

James E. Warfield Laid to Rest at Ione Tuesday P. M.

By MRS. OMAE RIETMANN

Funeral services for James Warfield, 49, were held Tuesday from the Church of Christ in Ione, with Rev. Joseph Stevens of the Ione Baptist church in charge. Mr. Warfield's death occurred Thursday, June 24, after a lingering illness.

James Edward Warfield was born Nov. 9, 1893, at Ione. He was the son of pioneer parents, Samuel N. and Sarah Simpson Warfield who came to Ione in 1884 and passed away in 1903, victims of a typhoid fever epidemic.

On July 2, 1940, he was united in marriage with Vera Louise Gordon at Walla Walla, who, with her son, David Gordon, and two sons by a former marriage, Robert, in service in North Africa and Glenn, with the Marines in the South Seas; two brothers, Jesse of Ione and Chester of Alberta, Canada; a sister, Mrs. Lovely Fisk of Kennewick, Wash., and his grandmother, Mrs. Robert Simpson of Portland, survive.

Deceased was a member of Lodge No. 191, I. O. O. F., Ione and Rebekah lodge No. 163 of Morgan.

Out-of-town relatives here for the funeral were Mrs. Warfield's mother, Mrs. S. R. Stone, her sister, Mrs. Edgar Haag, and her brother, Willard Stone, all of Pasco. Mrs. Warfield and David accompanied them to Pasco Tuesday evening.

Mardene Baker celebrated her third birthday June 22 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baker. Those present at her party were Billy and Mildred Seehafer, Sue and Annabelle Coleman, Judy and Alice Kay Mason, Wayne and Ellis Ball, Mary Emert and Ronald Duane Baker. Mesdames Lewis Ball, A. T. Coleman, Delbert Emert and Louis Halvorsen assisted in the festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Feldman had as their guests recently, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harvey and two children of Corbett, Ore., and Roy Earl of Des Moines, Iowa. Mr. Earl, who is the father of Mrs. Harvey, was on his first trip to the west.

The Omeca club met Tuesday, June 22 at the home of Mrs. Charles Carlson. The constitution and by-laws of the new club were read and adopted. Mrs. Harry Parcegan was honor guest, receiving many nice gifts. Others present were Mesdames Lloyd Morgan, Donald Heliker, Raymond Lundell, John Darst, Roy Lindstrom, Marion Palmer, Alvin Bunch, Milton Morgan, Darrell Padberg, Clarence Harris and Robert Buchanan.

Mrs. Millard Farrens has been quite ill at her home in Ione. Mrs. Ray Barnett has been caring for her.

Mrs. Matthew Gordon has returned to Ione after being employed several months at the munitions depot at Hermiston. She plans to return to her work there later in the year.

At the annual school meeting on Monday of last week the budget for the new year was adopted. Walter Dobyms was re-elected to the school board and Mrs. Cleo Drake was re-elected clerk.

An item appearing in the Sunday Oregon Journal June 20 was of interest to many local friends of the Tom Davidson family. This article told of the rapid military advancement of Ryder W. and John M. Finn of McCoy, Ore. They are the sons of Jessie Davidson Finn, daughter of Tom Davidson, former Ione resident, and niece of Mrs. Ella Davidson of Ione. Both of these men are Lt.-Colonels. Ryder W. 33, is with the army air force on submarine patrol in the Atlantic, and John M., 29, is with the army in Attu. Their father, J. Waldo Finn, farmer and stock buyer of McCoy, rose from buck private to captain in World War I.

Mrs. Clarence Harris entertained a number of the younger set and their mothers on June 21 in honor of her baby, Bernita's first birthday. Those present were Mrs. Delbert Emert and Mary, Mrs. Robert Buchanan and Joyce, Mrs. Elwynne Peck and Keith, Mrs. John Darst and Skipper, Mrs. Raymond Lundell and Karen, Mrs. Lloyd Morgan and Judy, Mrs. Garland Swanson and Jean Ann, Mrs. Donald Heliker and Judy, and Alice Kay Mason. After an afternoon of playing and taking pictures, refreshments of jello and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Troedson of Morgan were recent visitors at White Salmon, Wash., where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Balsiger.

Dr. and Mrs. Perry F. Schrock of day in Ione. Dr. Schrock conducted Portland spent Saturday and Sunday the services at the Co-operative church of Ione Sunday. After the services a potluck dinner at the Congregational church rooms gave the members of the church an opportunity to become better acquainted with Dr. and Mrs. Schrock.

Mrs. I. R. Robinson left last week to make a 10-day visit with her sister, Mrs. Loren D. Hale of Albany.

Mrs. Harvey Smith, Mrs. Henry Clark and Mrs. Frank Engleman were Pendleton visitors Wednesday of last week. When they returned they were accompanied by Mrs. Alfred Swales, who will spend a few day visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark.

Mrs. Charles O'Connor has been spending the last two weeks in Portland visiting her mother, Mrs. Edna Yarnell.

Mrs. Robert Buchanan went to Portland last week to have her onisls removed.

Mrs. Lewis Ball, Elmer Peterson and Ralph Ledbetter and daughter Estelle were in Portland last week to visit Mrs. Ralph Ledbetter who was so ill that a blood transfusion was necessary.

Carol Odom, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Odom, was taken to The Dalles Sunday to have a tonsillectomy Monday.

H. E. Yarnell, accompanied by Alton and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Yarnell of Lexington visited Mrs. Yarnell at the hospital in The Dalles Sunday. They found her improving from her recent operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan were Portland visitors last weekend. During their absence Mrs. Waite Crawford, mother of Mrs. Morgan, cared for Marylin.

The Topic club held the study meeting for June at the home of Mrs. Clel Rae, Saturday, June 26. Election of officers was as follows: Mrs. Algott Lundell, president; Mrs. Echo Palmateer, vice president; Mrs. Lloyd Morgan, secretary.

Do You Remember
"The Bridge of Ships" in World War I?
Well, It's Happening again in World War II!

Ships take money—lots of it. The greatest maritime fleet in history is being turned out in American shipyards today. You know what that means—MORE BONDS and STAMPS—more than you have ever bought before. Buy regularly and keep the ships launching regularly!
