BARLOW-WALKER NUPTIALS

In a setting of late midsummer beauty, Miss Margaret Lucille Barlow, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Barlow, became the bride of Pfc. Robert Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walker of Goldendale, Wash., at an impressive candlelight nuptial service, in the Heppner Church of Christ.

The 8 o'clock rites were solemnized before Rev. O. Wendell Herbison, in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. The double ring ceremony was used.

The wedding music was provided by Mrs. Thomas Wells who played a short prelude and a muted musical background while the candles were being lighted by Misses Charlotte Cannon and Edna Hughes. She also accompanied Miss Kathryn Parker who sang r'Hardelot's well loved wedding song, "Because." The processional was the traditional Lohengrin chorus and for recessional, Mendelssohn's wedding march was used.

The bride was on the arm of her father who also gave her in marriage. She was gowned in white chiffon and carried rosebuds and stephanotis. Her halo veil fell to her fingertips.

Her bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Edith Marie Barlow who was attired in mauve chiffon with shoulder length veil. She carried a nosegay of white gladioli blooms.

The groom was attended by Lowell Ashbaugh. The ushers were Loma Jones and Mildred Clary.

Following the ceremony the guests assembled in the church parlors where a short reception was held. Here the bride and groom cut the beautiful three tiered wedding cake upon which stood a miniature soldier and his bride. Assisting about the rooms were Mesdames Blaine Elliott, Wendell Herbison and Alma Gilliam, aunt of the bride.

The young couple left immediately for a brief honeymoon of a few days in Portland but upon reaching the city found the groom's orders to report at Salt Lake City for which point he departed Saturday evening. The bride returned to Heppner Sunday and was back at her desk in the office of the J. C. Penney company Monday morning.

Out of town guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Akers, her aunt, Alma Gilliam, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger and family of Lexington; Mrs. Henry Walker and son Laine of Goldendale, Wash., mother and brother of the groom.

SON ARRIVES

A nine pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mahon Sunday, Aug. 22 at Mrs. P. A. Mollahan's nursing home. The young man has been named John Thomas.

AMERICAN HEROES
BY LEFF

The Distinguished Service Cross has been awarded Staff Sgt. Doyle Kimmery of Huntington, Texas, for manning a sub-machine gun and returning the fire of low-flying enemy planes during the Jap attack on Hickam Field. When his ammunition was gone he ran from the cover of his truck to get more, and kept firing until the truck was bombed. He showed bravery beyond the call of duty. Figure out for yourself how much you can invest in War Savings beyond what you are doing now.
