F. C. Fredrickson Sells Holdings to Man From Iowa

By MRS. J. A. SHOUN

F. C. Fredrickson was a Heppner visitor Wednesday, supplying the local stores with his famous Irrigon melons. Mr. Fredrickson has sold out. The place is to be given over soon to the purchaser, a man from Iowa.

The seventh and eighth grades had a weiner roast at the river near Don Kenny's Thursday. Miss Taylor and Miss Larkin chaperoned them.

The George Russells have their house of three rooms and a basement almost completed. They bought the Isom tract west of town and are living in their trailer.

Mrs. Frances Grider of Portland came up Saturday to visit her son Walter Grider and Mrs. Grider. Earl Connell had his house and garage newly painted.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cooper of Troutdale spent from Saturday morning until Sunday evening with her parents, the Ernest Stephens family. They took their son Billy home. He has been here for four weeks.

Miss Helen Brown of Boardman called on the George Linn family Saturday. The Linns spent Sunday at Boardman with Miss Brown and the other Boardman teachers.

Roy Stamp of Heppner came over Wednesday to visit his sisters. Mrs. Luella Aeock and Mrs. J. A. Shoun. He brought Avery Shoun home with him. Avery has completed his harvesting. Mr. Stamp took his sisters to Heppner Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Umiker and the C. W. Grims went to Celilo to get salmon Tuesday.

Billy, Juanita and George Volle and Agnes Caldwell were Heppner visitors Thursday.

HOUSE SALE CAUSES MOVING MERRY-GO-ROUND

Moving is the order of the day at Lexington this week. Mrs. Mary Munkers sold her house to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Marshall, whose house was sold to Elmer Peterson of Ione. The Petersons are moving to Lexington immediately.

Falling in line with the order, Mrs. Gretta Cox sold her house to Mrs. Nettie Davis, a former occupant of the property, and completing the cycle. Mrs. R. M. Browning is moving into the house being vacated by Mrs. Davis.

VISITE PARENTS

Ensign and Mrs. Kenneth Peck are spending part of his leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George N. Peck at the farm home near Lexington. Ensign Peck has been in the South Pacific since December. The remainder of his leave will be spent in Portland, Corvallis and with Mrs. Peck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Urey of Eugene.

UP FROM THE DALLES

Mrs. Ralph Jackson and daughters, Carol and Marcielle, spent the week-end with Mr. Jackson at Lexington, coming from The Dalles where they are making their home for the winter.

MUSTANGS OPEN AGAINST MAC HI "B" BRIGADE

The Heppner Mustangs officially open their season against the Mac Hi "B" squad, at 2 p. m. Thursday. Although no men are back from last year's squad. Coach Corwin has several promising prospects from last year's reserves and from lower classmen.

The sophomores won the traditional class rush by a score of 210 to 115. This means that the freshmen will have to hang the green pennant in the study hall. The following is the number of points and who won for each event:

1. Skit: 75 points. Won by freshmen.
2. Boys' 100 yard dash: 30 points. Won by sophomores.
3. Girls' 50 yard dash: 30 points. Won by Freshmen.
4. Sack race: 20 points. Won by sophomores.
5. Bicycle race: 25 points. Won by sophomores.
6. Girls' nail-driving: 20 points. Won by sophomores.
7. Football throw: 10 points. Won by sophomores.
8. Boys' baseball throw: 10 points. Won by sophomores.
9. 3-legged race: 20 points. Won by sophomores.
10. Girls' baseball throw: 10 points. Won by freshmen.
11. Relay race: 20 points. Won by sophomores.
12. Tug of war: 40 points. Won by sophomores.

NEW BOOKS IN LIBRARY

A shipment of 22 new library books was received early this week by the high school librarian, Mrs. Clary. These books are for the benefit and enjoyment of all students. The outlook for obtaining the loan of new books at intervals during the year is very bright, so it is hoped that none of the students will face the lack of good reading.

The senior interviewed this week is Dorothy Worden, who has been an outstanding member of Heppner High for the past four years.

UNDERGOES SURGICAL

Mrs. E. Harvey Miller submitted to a surgical operation Wednesday at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. She was taken to the neighboring city Saturday.
