

Lexington Clubbers Make Good Record During Past Year

Lexington community and school are feeling justly proud of the record made by pupils participating in 4-H club work during the current year. Not only did the youngsters win many honors in the county contests but two of them returned from the Pacific International exposition in Portland with more laurels.

Showing in the light weight calf division at the Portland show, Ingrid Herman placed first with her calf. Her brother Helmuth, placed 10th in his class. They together with Portland by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Patty Majeske, were escorted to Majeske and all report a most enjoyable week, with many courtesies extended to them by people in authority.

The Herman children with their parents came to Morrow county from Chicago two years ago. They are farming the H. O. Bauman place near Lexington and are proving to be decided assets to the community. Helmuth Herman has been adjudged the healthiest boy in Morrow county.

Other winners in the 4-H health club were Audrey Majeske, healthiest girl and Lorine Van Winkle thiest girl and Lorinne Van Winkle second healthiest girl.
