paigh. The drive should have been cleaned up by this time, November 1 at the latest. As things stand now, it will require several more weeks and much personal canvassing to reach the goal. It will be another feather in our cap if we show our boys in uniform that we are mindful of their welfare as well as the people for whom they are offering their lives to liberate. We have suffered nothing more than some slight inconveniences. Those for whom the funds are asked have lost everything—their liberty most of all. Can we go on enjoying the good things of life knowing what others are enduring without feeling a sense of guilt that we are not doing our share in this titanic struggle.

Don't We Know!

The typographical error is a slippery thing and sly; you can hunt it till you're dizzy, but it somehow gets by. Till the forms are off the presses it is strange how still it keeps; it shrinks down in a corner, and it never stirs or peeps. That typographical error, too small for human eyes, till the ink is on the paper, when it grows to mountain size. The boss, he stares in horror, then he grabs his hair and groans; the copyreader drops his head upon his hands and moans. The remainder of the issue may be clean as clean can be, but the typographical error is the only thing you see!—Contributed.

—O—

The stepping stones to success can be dug out of the business quarry only with work—and lots of it.

Men have done wonders without hands, without feet, without eyes—but without brains they are helpless.

Maybe the fellow who said originally that people are just like sheep meant that somebody shears both regularly.

Let Your Heart Decide

Let your heart decide is the theme of the present campaign to raise money for the National War Chest, Inc. If you can not make up your mind what to give to these worthy causes, perhaps you can make your task easier by leaving the decision to your heart. That will not necessarily make your decision a matter of sentiment but it will turn your effort in the right direction.

If your mind cannot visualize the suffering among the war torn peoples of Europe and Asia—the starving populace of Greece, the long suffering Chinese, the downtrodden Poles and the out-cast Jews—then let your heart guide you in reaching plenty deep into your pocket to not only bring immediate relief to these people but to help rehabilitate them for carrying on the struggle against their oppressors and reestablishing themselves for the days of peace.

Morrow county has a proud record of achievement in all matters pertaining to the war. We have yet to fall down on any task imposed, but there is evidence that we are slipping in the present cam-

From where I sit . . .

by Joe Marsh

"Keeping store," Sam Abernethy says, "can teach a person plenty about human nature."
"Now coffee rationing's lifted, folks ain't a-breakin' their necks tryin' to buy all they can. Now-in' they can have it if they want it, they ain't so all-fired anxious to get it."
Sam's right, as usual. I don't crave that second cup half as much as when I couldn't get it.
But that's human nature . . . Like allowing moderate beer in the Army's post exchanges. Instead of leading to more drinking, the OWI report says it works out just the opposite—often as not the men choose soda-pop or milk, with beer right there and no restrictions on it.
But if it wasn't there, like in the last War, the story might be altogether different.
From where I sit, that's how it is with Americans. Tell 'em they can't have a thing and by golly, they'll find ways to get it. But admit their right to have it, and their own good sense will lead to moderation.
