Our Men in Service

close friends that he was quite busy at Guadalcanal and in the Aleutians. Just for a chaser he took on some convoy duty. Alton volunteered June 15, 1942, took his boot camp at San Diego and was not long in getting into action. This is his first leave and he has enjoyed visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Brown, at Pleasanton, Calif., as well as relatives and friends in Portland and Heppner. Absence of many familiar faces is noted by Alton, as well as all other service men returning home on leave or furlough. He reports back to San Francisco Nov. 22.

SERVE CHICKEN DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Cantwell served a fried chicken dinner to a group of active and prospective servicemen at their home Sunday evening honoring their guests, Pvt Jackson Holt and Sgt Alton Christensen. Jackson came in Friday evening after spending the past three months in maneuvers in the central Oregon region. He will spend his 15-day furlough visiting his grandparents and his mother, Mrs. Clarence Bauman, and will report back at camp in Arizona Nov. 20. Besides Holt and Christensen, those enjoying the dinner party Sunday evening were Merle Burkenbine, John Lane, Wade Bothwell, Mrs. Bauman and Mr. and Mrs. Cantwell.

HOME ON LEAVE

Merle Burkenbine arrived home Friday evening, coming from Texas where he is in naval aviation training school. Merle was called home on account of the serious illness of his father who suffered a heart attack Monday of last week. Reece Burkenbine also was sent for but was out on duty and could not be released at the time. Merle is helping operate the Heppner Market while home.

AUXILIARY PLANS CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR DECEMBER 13

Plans were laid Monday evening by the American Legion auxiliary for a Christmas party Dec. 13. Mrs. Harold Cohn has invited the group to meet at her home and Mrs. Harry Tamblin will be assistant hostess.

Mrs. William Instone and Mrs. Constance Hatfield were hostesses Monday evening when the auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Dick Wells. Christmas gifts and cheer were sent to the veterans hospital in Portland. The auxiliary's community service project at present is sponsoring the home front pledge—to help distribute rationed goods fairly, to hold down the cost of living and to eliminate black markets.

At the close of the meeting the hostesses served refreshments.

All members who have articles for the gift shop have been asked to leave them at the home of Mrs. Della Davidson before Nov. 15.

WIFE GETS MANY SOUVENIRS FROM MARINE HUSBAND

Guests at the M. L. Case home Sunday were Mrs. Don Case and her mother from the Umatilla project, where Mrs. Case is employed. Her husband, Lt. Don Case of the U. S. Marine corps, is a nephew of the Heppner merchant and is well known in this locality where he lived as a boy.

Don has sent his wife many souvenirs from the various places he has touched in his activities with the marines and she brought them along to show his Heppner relatives. He said to put them away in a box and he'll tell her all about them when he gets home. Don enlisted as a steward and his trips have taken him to various remote portions of the globe.
