 ports receipt of a $50 check from an acquaintance in Portland to whom she had appealed for a little financial assistance. This friend of Mrs. Thompson's is a champion of the colored people and when appealed to for a remittance to help the entertainment fund of the colored WACs at Walla Walla, she promptly forwarded the aforesaid check. There are 50 of the colored girls in the Walla Walla unit and the fund will be used in part in giving teas on the days following Thanksgiving and Christmas and part in providing decorations.

Sacks are being filled for the colored Wacs for Christmas at the present time.

Glen McMurtry is attending radio school at Chicago university. He returned to Farragut naval training station Nov. 2 after spending leave here with his parents and was sent from there to Chicago. The show is headed by the Great Virgil, premier international magician and illustrationist and Julie, sweetheart of magic, who will present a mammoth full evening entertainment filled with baffling mysteries and spectacular illusions.

Several beautiful sets of scenery, dozens of gorgeous costumes, special music and lighting effects, birds and animals and hundreds of pounds of magical equipment will be used in the presentation of this gigantic mystery spectacle.

The Great Virgil has spent a lifetime developing this extravaganza of mystery. Among the many breath-taking scenes to be seen here will be: "The Wierd Execution on Mars," "Sawing a Woman in Half," "The Great Trunk Mystery," "The Girl Who Lives Without a Head," "Chinatown after Dark," "Escape from a Locally Box," and dozens of other sensational acts.

In the fourth quarter Heppner received the kick-off and ran the ball to own 28. A few powerhouse plays for good gains and then Ulrich skirted right end for 38 yards and score. Once more Runnion hit the line for the extra point, bringing the score to 26-13.

A Condon fumble on the following kick-off again placed the ball in Mustang hands on the Condon 33. Edmondson climaxed this last drive by skirting right end for 18 yards and a touchdown. Runnion went over for the extra point. Score 33-13.

Condon was beaten in score but not in spirit and once more put on a powerhouse drive, which was their only safe style of playing, and had pushed the ball up to the Heppner 10 when the final gun ended the game.

The Condon backs were a little larger than Heppner's secondary and made consistent gains through the light Heppner line. Smith of the Blue Devils also was a constant threat on end runs but was stopped in due season by from one to a half dozen Heppner lads.

Johnny Eubanks of Ione refereed and O. Wendell Herbison, Heppner, served as umpire.

CURTIS-LUNDELL

Miss Verna Curtis became the bride of Pfc C. A. Lundell in a sunset wedding solemnized at the Post chapel, Fort Worden, Washington Sunday evening, Nov. 21, 1943. The bride wore a chocolate brown silk dress and accessories, with a corsage of white chrysanthemums. The maid of honor wore a teal blue two piece dress and brown accessories, with gold and white chrysanthemums. Immediately following the ceremony the young couple left for Portland where they plan to have Thanksgiving with the groom's parents and grandparents.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Curtis of Baudette, Minn., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lundell of Ione. They plan to make their home in Port Townsend, Wash., where Mrs. Lundell is a state employe and Mr. Lundell is with a Coast Artillery band.

A Heppner player accidentally deflected the ball into the receiver's hands and he was off for the goal line. A placekick was good. Score, 19-7. It looked like a real comeback when the second half opened. Condon advanced the kickoff to own 40 and marched uninterruptedly down the field to touchdown but failed to make the extra point.
