

Joint Installation Colorful Affair

For many years one of the important social events of the season has been the joint installation ceremonies of the Masons and Eastern Star. Changes wrought by war have affected this function but little the most notable being the personnel. This was evidenced Monday evening when gavel of the two orders changed hands in the formal exercises enjoyed by lodge people and guests alike.

Preceding the installation, some 200 people partook of a bountiful turkey dinner which belied any current advertising of food shortage. The salads, sauces, pies and other accessories combined to form a most excellent repast.

Assembled in the lodge hall, lodge members and guests first witnessed installation of officers of the Royal Arch chapter. Harry Tamblyn acted as installing officer and inducted Archie Ball, high priest, J. O. Turner king and Dr. L. D. Tibbles scribe.

The Blue lodge installed the following officers: worshipful master, Dr. L. D. Tibbles; senior warden, John Lane; junior warden, Loyal Parker; treasurer, Frank S. Parker; secretary, Ray McAllister; senior deacon, Gordon Banker; junior deacon, Terrill Benge; senior steward, Oscar Rippee; junior steward, Robert Grabill, and tyler, A. L. Ayers.

The Eastern Star employs a formal setting for the installation of officers and dignity and charm is added to the floor work by the lovely gowns worn by the ladies. First to be inducted was Mrs. Claude Graham, who succeeds Mrs. Emma Evans as worthy matron. She will be assisted by the following officers: Worthy patron, Blaine E. Isom; associate matron, Mrs. Archie Ball; associate patron, Ray McAllister; secretary, Mrs. Frank S. Parker; treasurer, Mrs. Edna Turner; conductress, Mrs. Beulah Barkla; associate conductress, Mrs. Tom Wells; chaplain, Mrs. Mabel Hughes; marshal, Mrs. Blaine Isom; organist, Miss Kathryn Parker; Ada, Mrs. Frank Connor; Ruth, Mrs. Roger Thomas; Esther, Mrs. Noel Dobyns; Martha, Mrs. Oscar Rippee; Electa, Mrs. K. A. House; warder Mrs. Harley Anderson and sentinel, Harley Anderson.

Several gift presentations were made, Mrs. Evans receiving a past matron's pin; Archie Ball a fountain pen from his five daughters and a gift from the officers' club; Dr. Tibbles a gavel made from Morrow county sage brush and presented as a personal tribute by Ray McAllister; and two beautiful bouquets for the new worthy matron one from her husband and two little daughters, the latter presenting them to their mother, and a gift from her worthy patron and his wife.
