School Presents Fine Christmas Program

Proud fathers and mothers and interested friends filled the gymnasium to capacity Wednesday night to enjoy the Christmas program presented by grade and high school students.

Following the sounding of taps by Morgan Connor the band played three numbers, the national anthem, "God Bless America" and "Christmas Festival." Grogg singing was led by Everett Smith with Miss Rose Hoosier at the piano. Archdeacon Neville Blunt read the prophecy as found in Isaiah and Rev. Bennie Howe offered prayer.

"Star of the East", a pageant of the Christmas story, arranged and directed by Miss Lela Peterson, was the high light of the evening and a beautiful production it was. The stage setting was complete, to the star rising above Bethlehem. Seated before the manger was Mary with Joseph at her side, portrayed by Marjorie Sims and Joe McLaughlin. The shepherds, Kenneth Schunk, Lauren Corwin and Tom Hughes; wise men, Glen Coxen, Billy Ulrich, Francis Connor, children, Wesley Galliger, Dorothy Allstott, Jack Ross, and adult worshippers, Carolyn Bergstrom and Herbert Schunk, completed the picture with Dorothy Worden as the angel.

The well loved story progressed by readings of scripture by Bobby Barnett and Karl Gabler, and antiphonal singing by the lower grade chorus under the direction of Miss Kathryn Parker and the upper grade chorus with Miss Hoosier leading. Miss Parker's high school chorus contributed greatly to the enjoyment of the evening with their well sung carols. Solos, Star of the East and Silent Night were sung by Jean Turner accompanied by Marylou Ferguson, and practice at 8 o'clock.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:
'Arise, shine, for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.' Isa. 60:1.

MIDWEEK SERVICES

Young people's meeting Tuesday 7:45 p. m. Prayer service, Thursday 7:45 p. m.

Clifford G. Noble, pastor.

Everett Smith accompanied by the upper grades humming softly. Rev. Francis McCormick pronounced the benediction after which the curtains slowly closed.

The very smoothness with which the entire program moved bespoke the weary hours of preparation and rehearsals which alone can bring such pleasure to an audience and justly deserved satisfaction to students and faculty.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parsegan left the latter part of the week for Salem where they were called by the serious illness of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Barratt went to Portland Tuesday evening to be gone a week or 10 days.
