

Our Men in Service

Continued from First Page

from the god; usually a hand of bananas or a cocoanut.

After five days and nights of this, the goddess, the collected food and money are taken down to the river and thrown in and destroyed. This complete process is repeated every year. I close with all my love.

Lt Lester Leroy Dale Stilwell.

RETURNS TO SOUTH

Pfc Raymond Kay Ferguson departed Wednesday night to return to Camp Wolters Texas after enjoying the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ferguson and other relatives. His furlough was quite unexpected and the lad thoroughly enjoyed just being at home with his family.

INJURED IN ACTION

Mrs. Catherine Doherty and other members of her family have received word that Paul Doherty, a member of the marines, was injured in action in the South Pacific. No particulars were received with the message.

RETURNS TO CAMP

S 2c Hubert Wilson left the last of the week for Gulfport Miss. to resume training after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wilson.

VISITING FAMILY

Pfc Simpson Holley is visiting his wife and son at the Morris Nash home, coming from New Orleans where he has been cooking in the general hospital. He expects to go on to a hospital ship as cook when he returns to duty.

VISITING MOTHER

Pvt Francis Doherty is visiting his mother, Mrs. Catherine Doherty and other relatives, coming from Shreveport, La., where he is in training.

NOW AT FARRAGUT

Roger Conner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Connor, enlisted in the navy last week and is stationed at Farragut. He had been "chaffing at the bit" until he was 17 and lost little time in joining up.

STAR Reporter

Friday-Saturday, January 21-22

Oklahoma Raiders

A musical western with Tex Ritter and Fuzzy Knight

—PLUS—

Sherlock Holmes Faces Death

Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce
This modernized version of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's "Musgrave Manor" is an excellent detective story.

Sunday-Monday, January 23-24

Let's Face It

Bob Hope, Betty Hutton, Dona Drake, Cully Richards, Eve Arden, Zazu Pitts, Marjorie Weaver, Raymond Walburn

Naturally you'll go for Hope as a draftee in an army camp comedy, from the man who's world-famous for his army camp shows. Cole Porter songs!

Tuesday, January 25

In Old Chicago

Tyrone Power, Alice Faye, Don Ameche, Brian Donlevy, Andy Devine

A musical story of the O'Leary Family and its relation to the great Chicago fire of 1871. A re-issue of a grand show.

Wednesday-Thursday, Jan. 26-27

Swingshift Maisie

Ann Sothern, James Craig, Jean Rogers

A happy hurricane of laughter and romance as the blonde from Brooklyn puts the "swing" in swing shift.

GO TO CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. Harry O'Donnell left Friday for San Francisco where they were called by the serious illness of Mrs. O'Donnell's mother. They accompanied Mrs. Edward and in Portland picked up Mr. Rice. Mr. O'Donnell had not planned to make the trip until it was learned that both their sons would be in San Francisco on a week's leave.

TAKES SON TO PORTLAND

Mrs. Marvin Wightman left for Portland Sunday, taking her son, Marvin Jr., to the Doernbecker hospital for treatment. She expects to be away about a month.

COMES FOR CAR

Mrs. Viola Gray arrived in Heppner Tuesday from her home at Dorris, Calif., and left Thursday morning driving a car she bought from Mrs. A. E. Burkenbine. Mrs. Gray is a former resident of Heppner, living here several years when her husband, the late Dr. Gray, practiced here.

ACCEPTS PENDLETON JOB

Miss Jeannette Sims has accepted the position of secretary to the city superintendent of schools in Pendleton. Miss Sims was a winter term graduate from Oregon State college and visited at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. D. McMurdo following her

ON FURLOUGH

Pfc Albert Winkleman, in training at Fort Ranier, Wash., is visiting in the county this week. He is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Alen at Lexington.

IN HOSPITAL

M. L. Case and daughter, Mrs. G. E. Nikander, took Mrs. Case to The Dalles the first of the week and placed her in a hospital for observation and treatment.

RETURNS TO HEPPNER

Mrs. Neva LeTrace came from Stanfield Sunday night to take care of Mrs. W. E. Pruyn who is ill. Mrs. LeTrace was visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Lowe, who brought her home.

JOINT INSTALLATION

Friday evening, Jan. 21, is the date set by the Oddfellows and Rebekahs for their annual installation of officers. The affair will open with a dinner at 6:30 o'clock followed by the business of the evening.

VISITING HERE

Mrs. T. W. Rippee of Boardman is visiting in Heppner this week at the homes of Frank Conner and Oscar Rippee.

HERE FROM KAMELA

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Charlton of Kamela were visitors in the county last week, spending some time with friends in the Eight Mile section and attending to business matters in Heppner. Mrs. Charlton, the former Daisy Shively, was busy greeting friends while in town. Her husband is a railroad man.

RETURN TO PORTLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harshman left for Portland Tuesday where Mrs. Harshman will receive further treatment for a leg injury sustained in Klamath Falls last fall. They spent some time in Portland earlier in the winter and returned here a short time ago but it soon developed that the limb was not healing properly.

RETURNS FROM TEXAS

Mrs. Cyrene Barratt returned Saturday from Texas where she attended her son Bill's wedding late in December.

RETURN TO NEW MEXICO

V. P. Huff was granted gasoline by the rationing board to take his family to their home in Albuquerque, N. M. They left Saturday for that point. Huff was employed on the Kinzua logging road project, working for Leonard & Slate contractors.

IN PORTLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilkinson drove to Portland Tuesday to spend a few days on business. They expect to return home the last of the week.

WORD OF APPRECIATION

We do not know the names of all of the people who so kindly and generously assisted us after the fire which destroyed our home and belongings and are taking this means to say "thank you from the bottoms of our hearts."

Mr. and Mrs. Esie M. Walker and family.

KEEP ON
Backing the Attack!
WITH WAR BONDS

SAVE TIME SAVE MONEY

SHOP AT

Firestone

LET US RECAP YOUR SMOOTH TIRES

No Rationing
Certificate Required

6.70

On Your 6.00-16 Tire

Drive in today! Let us inspect your tires thoroughly. Our quality recapping will enable you to get longer, safer mileage. Don't delay. Have tires recapped now and be ready for your next tire inspection.

Our Recaps Are Guaranteed

Fashion-Right and Rightly Priced Spring Dresses

159

For Every Hour
of the Day

Wonderful for at-home duties now . . . to wear on outings this coming spring! Fresh, crisp cottons in immaculately tailored or attractive dressed up styles! Neat-as-a-pin checks, slender stripes or enchanting novelty prints. All trimmed, of course! Sizes 12 to 20.

"I PAINTED THIS ROOM
MYSELF FOR ONLY 2.79"

WALL-TONE

2.79

Gal.

- Covers With One Coat
- Easy To Apply
- Simply Thin It With Water
- Readily Washable

Transform the interior of your home quickly and economically with Firestone Wall-Tone. It covers any interior surface—wallpaper, brick, cement, fresco, tile and painted surfaces—giving them a soft pastel, pleasing finish. Eight smart colors available.

Come In For A Free Demonstration

ROSEWALL Motor Company