News for you about the WAC

WANT TO KNOW how the new WAC recruiting policies apply to you?

Want to know whether you're qualified for a special kind of Army job — whether you'd serve with the Air, Ground, or Service Forces—whether you could be assigned to the part of the country in which you enlist?

TODAY—get full details at the nearest U.S. Army Recruiting Station (your local post office will give you the address). Or write to: The Adjutant General, Room 4415, Munitions Building, Washington, D. C.

It's a Good Thing to Keep Track of Expiration Dates of Points

Brown points Book 3—R, S, T, U and V good this week. R, S, T, U expire Saturday night, January 29.

G, H and J good through Sunday, Feb. 20—Ration Book No. 4.

Sugar stamp 30 in Book No. 4 is good from Jan. 16 through Friday, March 31.

We are here to sell you what you need and will always strive to give you the best in goods and service, but first, we want you to buy all the WAR BONDS you possibly can.

Central Market

Is there any way you can EVER repay them?

No . . . of course there isn't—not if you lived to be a million years old. But, you can carry your load—assume your responsibility to them, to your family, to your country. You can do it by winning the battle of the 4th War Loan . . . by opening your purse strings and buying War Bonds to the very limit. For what they are doing, surely this is not asking too much. They are depending on you.
