JUDGE GIVES SPEECH

Judge Bert Johnson, an outstanding citizen of Heppner, gave an inspiring talk Monday morning, Jan. 24, to the high school assembly.

He spoke on the "Requisites for Success." The points he stressed most for success were reputation, character, education and spiritual education. Also he discussed a person's personality including honesty and good health over the intellectual ability of a person.

Of unusual and enlightening material, Judge Johnson's speech was appreciated by the assembly for its beneficial quality.
