

BOARDMAN NEWS

Martin Home at Boardman Razed By Fire Thursday

By MARGARET THORPE
The home of Therman Martin and family burned to the ground early Thursday morning without a thing being saved. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are living in one of Peck's cabins for the present.

Dr. Weinzirl, of the University of Oregon Medical school in Portland spoke to the teachers of the Boardman and Irrigon schools Friday night at the Boardman school auditorium. This was followed by cards and refreshments at the Francis Carter home.

Mrs. Sybil Pettys and Gary spent the week-end in Pendleton. Cecil Hamilton, Minnie McFarland and Mr. and Mrs. George Daniel spent Friday in Heppner on business.

Boardman Yellowjackets won the game with Stanfield on the local floor Thursday night. This entitles the boys to play in the tournament.

The first and second grades held their Valentine party Friday afternoon. About a dozen of the mothers attended the party. A number of songs were sung by the students and valentines were handed out followed by cake and cocoa served in the cafeteria. The remainder of the grades held their parties on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Partlow have received word that their son Vernon is in a hospital in California. No details have been learned. Vernon has been in the south Pacific war zone.

Albert Partlow left Monday night for Farragut after spending boot leave at home with his parents.

Officers and committee chairmen met at the McFarland home Sunday night for the purpose of making plans for the coming grange year.

Monday night the annual Mother-Daughter reception was held at the school house. The program was held in the auditorium and consisted of the following numbers: Welcome by Ivera Olson, My Ideal, a vocal duet by Audrey Wilson and Chloe Barlow, "Cat's Meow" a playlet by Chloe Barlow, Margaret Emerson, Glenda Case and Dorothy Van Metre, The First Bluebird, a musical reading by Dorothy Roach, Winter Wonderland, a vocal duet by Louise Hamilton and Evelyn Pearson, "Sure Cure", a playlet by Doris Wilson and Etta Jones, When Mother Sang Hush-a-bye-O, a vocal duet by Margaret Emerson and Dorothy Roach, February, a recitation by Bernadine Emmerson, "I'll Always Care" Chloe Barlow and Audrey Wilson, Mothers, a reading by Evelyn Graham, "Till We Meet Again," a vocal duet by Louise Hamilton and Evelyn Pearson, and the return address by Mrs. Case. The program was followed by games in the Home Ec room and lunch in the cafeteria.

H. H. Weston is very ill in the Hermiston hospital.

Irrigon News Notes

By MRS. J. A. SHOWN
Toby finished drilling the Roy Minnick well Thursday and moved back to W. C. Isom's place. The Minnick well is 63 feet deep. The Isom well is already nearly 70 feet but did not seem to have enough water.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Umiker, Fred Houghton and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shoun were Heppner visitors last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Hoagland are the parents of a 9½ pound baby girl born Thursday. She is the fifth girl in the family.

Miss La Verne Duus, student nurse at Pendleton, spent Tuesday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Herman Duus.

R. Wilson and O. Leach spent the week-end in The Dalles with their families returning Monday morning.

The high school student body had a valentine party Saturday evening. They played badminton and had refreshments.

Ernest Stephens spent Friday and Saturday with his mother Mary

Stephens in Arlington.

Vern Thompson 3½c petty officer spent from Friday until Sunday with his uncle Ora Thompson. He returned to Portland Sunday.

Robert Christian metal smith 2½c from Corpus Christi Tex. is spending part of his vacation with his aunt, Mrs. Ora Thompson.

Vernon Jones is quite ill in the Pendleton hospital.

Continued on Page Seven

Heppner Market

Corned Beef....	Boneless,	5 points and 28c	a pound
Kraut			35c a quart
Spare Ribs		1 point and 26c	a pound
Pig Hocks		1 point and 23c	a pound
Beef Roasts		8 points and 30c	a pound
Ham Hocks		1 point and 20c	a pound

We Have Over 16 Kinds of Lunch Meat

Buy a War Bond

If You Are a Good Auto

Mechanic Or Body Man---

It will pay you to get in touch with SUNSET MOTOR COMPANY, The Dalles. They have openings for a few good mechanics and body men. Get set now for after the war. SUNSET offers the finest pay, permanent employment, pleasant working conditions, vacation with pay, a warm clean shop, free coveralls and a Christmas Bonus.

Call or write to Carl Stiefel,

SUNSET MOTOR COMPANY
The Dalles, Oregon

Free Movie Nights

February 23-24

Anyone buying a War Bond through the Star Theatre between now and February 24 will be given a Free pass to the show either one of these nights.

Corvette K-225

Randolph Scott, James Brown, Ella Raines, Barry Fitzgerald, Andy Devine, Fuzzy Knight, Noah Beery Jr.

STAR THEATRE

THEY "KEEP 'EM ROLLING"
THE RAILROADS ARE THE BACKBONE OF OFFENSE

LISTEN TO "YOUR AMERICA" ON YOUR FAVORITE N.B.C. STATION EVERY SATURDAY 2 P.M. PACIFIC WAR TIME