

MATRON OF HONOR AT SHIP LAUNCHING

When the ship Joseph Simon was launched at the Oregon ship yards, Mrs. Howard Boggs, wife of a plant superintendent, was matron of honor. Mrs. Boggs is a sister of Miss Edith Sweek and Mrs. Jack Couture of Heppner.

Mrs. Ray Hausman christened the ship. Each launching is a fixed ceremonial which is carried through with considerable formality. Christener and attendants are picked up at their homes by a special car and chauffeured to the ship yards. When the ceremony is over there is a presentation of flowers to the participating ladies, in this instance large bouquets of roses. Lunch is served in the yards afterwards.

Mrs. Boggs sent her sisters some interesting pictures in connection with the festivities.
