

IONE NEWS NOTES

By MRS. OMAR RIETMANN

Cpl Barbara Snyder and A. W. [1] Laura Bristow of the Royal Canadian Airforce women's division, were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. David Rietmann and Mrs. Etta Bristow. The young women, who have been in service about two years were on leave from Vancouver, B. C. where they are stationed. A. W. Bristow is a niece of Mrs. Bristow.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Heliker have as their guests Mrs. Earl Baldwin of The Dalles, sister of Mrs. Heliker.

H. E. club of Willows grange will meet in all day session at the home of Mrs. Helena Buschke near Morgan on March 17. Potluck at noon. All members are urged to be present.

Miss Doris Palmateer is spending her two weeks vacation with her mother, Mrs. Echo Palmateer. Doris is training as a nurse cadet at La Grande.

Rev. and Mrs. Paul A. Davies of the Congregational church association will be in Ione Friday, March 17. There will be a fellowship supper at the Congregational room at 6:30 after which there will be service and a reception for the new members of the Cooperative church.

Word has been received of the arrival of a second son, Carl Norman, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Erling Thompson, Catherine Scharf, of McMinnville on March 6. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are former Ione residents, Mrs. Thompson having taught in the Ione schools a number of years.

Joe Mason of Prineville is reported recovering satisfactorily following a gun-shot wound in the abdomen he received last Tuesday when attacked by Sidney Elms in an altercation over payment of rent by Elms for his furniture and violin repair shop. Elm later died from a self-inflicted head wound. Mason is well known here being a native of Ione and a brother of Bert Mason, Ione merchant.

Roy Pettyjohn is on furlough, visiting his family at the home of N. E. Pettyjohn. A family dinner in Roy's honor was held Sunday at the Pettyjohn home.

The Maranatha club held an all day meeting last Saturday at the Congregational rooms with good attendance at the pot-luck dinner and meeting afterwards when Rev. Miller entertained with song and music.

About 30 members and friends of the Cooperative church with their families gathered for dinner at the Congregational rooms Sunday. In the afternoon a quiz program on the Bible was conducted by Rev. Earl Miller which proved very interesting and enlightening. The two weeks meeting of the church came to a close Sunday evening with a record attendance for the two weeks. Friends from Heppner and Lexington were also present. Baptismal service for eight converts were held after the evening service.

Mrs. Harvey Ring returned from Pendleton Sunday. She is now convalescing from a major operation she underwent at St. Anthony's hospital a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Huston Bryson of Portland is visiting at the home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bryson.

Leslie Roundy of La Grande was in Ione Sunday. He returned to La Grande Monday accompanied by his family who have been at the home of Mrs. Roundy's father, Lewis Padberg.

Pvt Tench Aldrich returned to Camp Polk La. last Saturday.

Wm. A. Hayes returned to Ione last week after several weeks visit in California and Texas.

Mrs. Laxton McMurray has recovered from the flu sufficiently to be up and around again.

All the teachers in the Ione school have been re-elected with the exception of Mrs. Della Nance and James Ryan who had previously announced their intention to resign.

Mrs. Mary Peiffer of Walla Walla spent Tuesday in Ione visiting her sister Mrs. Charles Nord of Portland who is ill at the home of her son Ray Barnett.

IRRIGON NEWS

By MRS. J. A. SEOUR

Mrs. Jack McFall of Spokane is visiting her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McFall.

Mrs. Lon Lathrop of Enterprise spent several days with the Elmer Rucher and Paul Slaughter families.

Billy Rutledge and Joe Wilson are going to Heppner Saturday to go to the army camp to which they are assigned.

Calvin Allen and Betty May Grim went to Monument and Prairie City to see their grandfather, Geo.

Hux who has been ill.

Mrs. Ruth Uniker and Betsy Acock were Prosser visitors Saturday evening.

E. R. Schneider and Joe Wilson left for Metaline Falls Monday.

Moses McGrew and a boy named Wright of Orchard, Wash., and Robert McGrew of Farragut Ida., were Irrigon visitors Monday.

Fred Adams has the foundation laid for an addition to his store.

R. C. Woods and Lois Markham were Walla Walla visitors Monday.

J. A. Shoun was in Walla Walla

Tuesday.

Mrs. Nora Wilson arrived home Saturday for Portland and Woodlawn where she has been visiting her daughters.

Mrs. Nina Harris came up from Portland Saturday going back Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glasgow gave a farewell party Wednesday evening for Billy Aldrich and his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Batie Rand and two sons were Pendleton visitors Saturday.

Since Moore was in Pendleton on business Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brown were Yakima visitors Monday getting home Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Wes Isom left for Portland Thursday morning.

Irrigon had a hard wind Friday that disrupted telephone and electric service of the Leicht station. A repair crew had to be called to remove the fallen trees and repair the line.

The last few nights have been extra cold. Tuesday night was cold enough to freeze pipes.

What Builds Confidence

To really know a business firm, one must go further than the introductory handshake—beyond the first merchandise sold and delivered.

Experience over a long period of years will tell you whether a store fulfills its promises, treats you fairly and squarely in all transactions, large or small.

The confidence is mutual and we intend to continue to do our part.

Peterson's

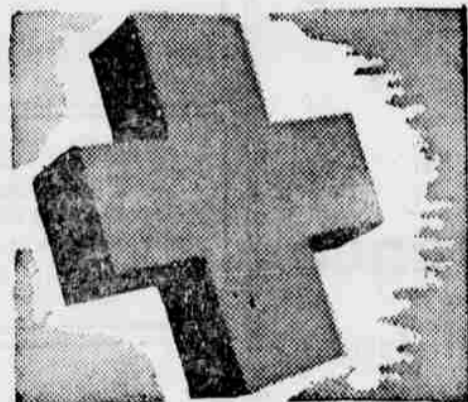

A good cup of coffee is the perfect complement to a satisfying meal. Our food is good, well cooked, and tasty; our service is prompt and we are pleased to serve you.

Due to shortage of help we remain closed all day on Thursdays.

Try our meatless meals every Friday.

HEPPNER CAFE

Your Red Cross is at HIS side--

Have you subscribed? GIVE GENEROUSLY

Heppner Bakery

Everything under control

THE DISPATCHER

UNION PACIFIC
1900 DIAMOND ANNIVERSARY 1944

It's the job of the train dispatcher to keep "everything under control." We should do the same, in our homes. Control waste in foods, fuels and other vital commodities.

THEY "KEEP 'EM ROLLING"
THE RAILROADS ARE THE BACKBONE OF OFFENSE

LISTEN TO "YOUR AMERICA" ON YOUR FAVORITE N.B.C. STATION EVERY SATURDAY 2 P.M. PACIFIC WAR TIME.