After two years of dramatic inactivity, the Junior class is presenting the traditional class play.

Under the direction of their experienced English teacher, Miss Mardock, the class is presenting "Tiptoe Inn," a three act comedy by Robert St. Clair, on Friday, March 31, at the high school gymnasium.

Choosing of the cast took place the latter part of February and they have been practicing each night at school.

The cast is as follows: Rhoda Stillman, a young wife, Kathryn Howell; Mrs. Howard Stillman, her mother-in-law, Marylou Ferguson; Lolita Winthrop, the governor's daughter, Midge Provo; Henrietta Hodson, of the Hodson's school for girls, Betty Coxen; Oiva, a maid with hypnotic ambitions, Opal Shannon; Mrs. Abbot, owner of "Tiptoe Inn", Melba Burnside; Armand Duvall, a stage star, Joe McLaughlin; Gov. Winthrop, a widower, Joe Hughes; Aaron Hicks, a handy man with detective ambitions, Jack Pickens; John Jacob Johnson, a utilities magnate, Ray French; Howard Stillman, Jr. the young bridegroom, Ted Ferguson; and Henry Abbot, Mrs. Abbot's "Abbot", Don Knowles.

The play takes place in the office of "Tiptoe Inn," a mountain resort in the Catskills 70 miles from New York.

OPERATE CORNELIUS CANNERY

O. L. Barlow and son Bill operate a custom cannery at Cornelius and in the past year processed for about 2000 families approximately 200,000 cans. They plan to can 345,000 cans this year, states the News-Times of Forest Grove.

The two men attended a short course in food preparation canning school supervised by Professor Wiegand and Thomas Ornsdorff at Oregon State college to better equip them for the 1944 run. O. L. Barlow is a brother of Mrs. Lee Howell of Heppner. He formerly lived in the Ione section.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zivney and M. L. Morgan, farmers on the Boardman project, were Heppner business visitors Tuesday.

K. A. House spent the week-end in La Grande receiving treatment for sinus trouble. He will return there this week-end for further treatment.

Mrs. Mack Gentry was rushed to Pendleton by ambulance Thursday afternoon and taken to a hospital for an immediate operation. Her condition is serious.

CALLED TO LONE ROCK

Mrs. Roy Orwick was called to Lone Rock the first of the week by the illness of her mother.

VISITING PARENTS

Mrs. C. C. Dunham is spending a week or ten days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Crawford, coming Saturday evening from Coeur d'Alene, Ida. Her husband, Ph. M. C. C. Dunham, accompanied a contingent of transfers from Farragut to San Diego the first of the week and expects to spend a day or so here upon his way back to

Again Morrow County Goes OVER THE TOP!

Americans changed their habits for the better in February...

The Fourth War Loan Drive is over. It was a huge success, thanks to you, the Average American Citizen.

You put it over, and do you realize that in doing that, you laid the foundation for a wonderful new habit...

... the habit of saving more money, of buying more Bonds, of building yourself a better and safer and happier future.

You bought extra Bonds. And it didn't kill you. All right—why not keep buying extra Bonds? Why not make the Drive of February the habit of March, April, May and the duration?

You'll be doing yourself a tremendous favor. You'll be helping that son, husband, sweetheart, neighbor who's in the Armed Forces. You'll be helping win a quick and complete victory!

Keep buying... extra Bonds!

Final figures for the 4th War Loan Drive now available show Morrow county citizens purchased $350,400 in War Bonds—38.7 percent above the quota for individual purchases, and corporations purchased $80,500—73.9 percent above quota for corporation purchases. Combined sales totaled $430,900, which well exceeds the $298,700 quota for all bonds.

The committee responsible for the 4th War Loan Drive is indebted to the following solicitors and others responsible for the drive:
