1943 LOANS EXPIRE APRIL 30

Farmers who have not yet redeemed 1943 loans on warehouse-stored wheat, barley and rye are reminded by WFA that their loans mature on April 30. After that date, the loan contract provides that the CCC take possession of the wheat and offer it for sale. Current market prices are high enough to permit borrowers to dispose of their wheat, barley and rye above the loan and other charges against it. Loans on the 1942 wheat crop stored on farms also mature on April 30, but borrowers may make delivery or redemption during the following 60 days. Announcement of the 1944 wheat loan rates is expected.

We've got Axis to grind. Buy Defense Bonds and Stamps.

These are busy times—especially so for the one who has to plan and prepare the meals for the family, for she too is doing her share of war work.

It will be a boost to her's and the family's morale to eat out occasionally—to enjoy one of our STEAK DINNERS, or an oyster supper, or any one of the wide variety of excellent meals to be found on our bill of fare. Come any time . . . we're always prepared.

Business Is Becoming More Concerned Over the Future . . . . .

Demand for labor is beginning to decline; construction is at low ebb; total retail sales are little if any higher than at this time last year. Best gains are in the Pacific Coast region. Savings banks deposits have reached a new high . . . But we are still batting 100 percent. Why worry about your sugar allowance—Come in and take some of Foster's delicious doughnuts, angel food cake, or some other fine flavored cake home for that lunch tonight. Also have a full line of Foster's bread—cracked wheat, Hollywood non-fattening, rye and other kinds. Give them a trial.

LIKE all other living things, trees have a youth, a maturity, and an old age.

Forest trees which give us our lumber, our pulpwood, plywood, and countless other daily necessities, produce most useful wood in their early and middle life.

Good forestry and good management calls for harvesting mature trees before decay sets in and makes them less valuable to the nation, creating a breeding place for destructive insects and disease.

Good forest management creates a cycle of continuous tree crops. That is the basis on which this company operates with an eye on today . . . an eye on tomorrow.
