WRITE IN

the name of

Thomas E. Dewey

for President

when you vote Friday

Thomas E. Dewey is the outstandingly strong man whose name will come first before the Republican Convention in June. There is every indication that he will receive the Republican nomination. Oregon Republicans will do well to write in his name on the ballot and let Oregon back a winner.

Announcement

To the Republican Voters

Having announced myself as a candidate for the Republican nomination to the office of Sheriff of Morrow County, I take this means to appeal to you for support. My work in the Navy prevents me from coming to Morrow County to make a personal campaign.

My enlistment is for the duration of the war only. When the war is over (and I hope that is soon), if I am nominated and elected, it is my earnest hope and desire to return to Morrow County and again take an active part in its welfare.

My work in the Navy has given me valuable experience and training that will be beneficial to me in the performance of the duties of Sheriff.

My record as Sheriff should speak for itself and with the added experience of the Navy I feel justified in asking and soliciting the support of the Republican voters for my nomination. I will appreciate any and all support given me.
