CARD OF THANKS

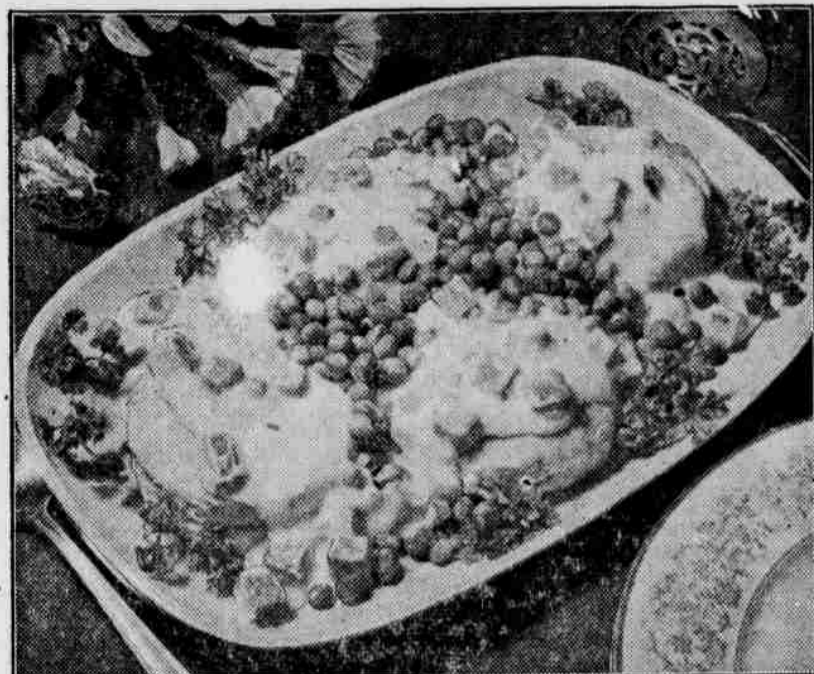

We wish to thank all those who assisted and offered expressions of sympathy in our bereavement. Of the many beautiful floral tributes there were some unaccompanied by cards. It is obvious we cannot thank these people personally and hope they will accept our thanks and appreciation through this medium of public expression.

ATTENDING SUMMER SCHOOL

Archdeacon Neville Blunt left early Tuesday morning for Cove to attend the summer school for the young people of the Eastern Oregon district of the Episcopal church. He will return Saturday evening and conduct services Sunday morning at the home of Mrs. Percy Hughes on Little Butter creek on the occasion of the annual outdoor meeting.

Hospitality Is Non-Rationed

YES, we can still be generous with our hospitality—can still have the pleasure of inviting friends for dinner—because hospitality fortunately remains a non-rationed item. To be sure, we must do just a little careful planning to stretch those ration points wisely. Time-saving menus are important, too—the kind that the war worker-homemaker-hostess can prepare easily and quickly.

For a hearty main dish—that usual menu problem—serve a meat and vegetable shortcake. Here we have used Creamed Prem and green peas on piping hot biscuits, fresh from the oven. But left-over meat of any kind can be used, or any one of the low-point table ready meats—frankfurters, too, are excellent.

Meat and Vegetable Shortcake
Make a White Sauce of:
4 tablespoons blended shortening
4 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk
¼ teaspoon salt

Add to White Sauce:
1 cup cubed cooked meat
1 cup cooked green peas
Seasonings to taste

Biscuit Recipe

2 cups sifted flour 1 teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons ½ cup milk
baking powder 2 tablespoons
6 tablespoons melted blended
shortening

Make a biscuit dough by cutting the 6 tablespoons blended shortening into the sifted flour, baking powder and salt. Add milk, stirring quickly but thoroughly. Turn dough onto a floured board. Knead gently. Roll out about ½ inch thick. Cut into eight 3-inch rounds. Brush tops of four rounds with melted shortening and place second round on top. Bake in a hot oven (450°F.) about 15 minutes.

Separate the rounds. Cover the bottom with the meat and vegetable mixture. Place top round on and cover it generously with creamed mixture.

GUEST FROM MARSHFIELD

Jane Shank of Marshfield is the house guest of her cousin Sally Cohn. Jane's mother will be remembered by many Heppner people as Eleanor Cohn, sister of H. A.

Conley Lanham is in Havre, Mont., where he was called the past weekend by the illness of his mother, Mrs. Mildred Lanham, who is ill with pneumonia. She is some what improved at this time.

Grazing School Held For Triple-A Force

A special school to acquaint members of the local organization with grazing practice routine was held Monday and Tuesday at the office of County Agent C. D. Conrad.

Instructors coming for the school were George Bradley of Boise, Ida., administrative assistant of the western grazing division of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and Merle Cummings of Corvallis, range assistant. E. Harvey Miller and C. D. Conrad also participated.

HERE ON VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Becket are spending a few days in Heppner, coming from Portland where Harold is employed in war work. They are using part of the time to fix up around their residence property.

MUST HAVE INSPECTION CARD

Applicants for mileage ration are reminded that tire inspection certificates must accompany the application before the rationing board can act upon the request. Anyone not informed regarding the regulation should make inquiry at the office. officials state.

Assistance is needed at the rationing office in issuing mileage for pickups and trucks. Anyone having a little time to spare each day will be doing a good service by volunteering for this service.

A change in personnel was made necessary by the resignation of Mrs. Ilene Laughlin as chief clerk. Mrs. Harry Tamblin has been moved up to the chief clerk post and Mrs. Grace Misner has taken her place as price clerk and also will assist both Mrs. Tamblin and Mrs. Joe Hughes in their departments.
