HEPPNER SPRINTER BEST IN SQUADRON; COMPANY 2ND

Raymond Parrish is upholding his reputation as a sprinter which he established in high school. At a recent track meet staged by the air cadets at San Antonio, Tex., Parrish won the mile event for his group in 5 minutes and 20 seconds, and took second place in the company event.

In line with the weather this region has been experiencing, this week, Raymond writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parrish of Heppner, that the sun sure is hot down on the southern rim of the good old U. S. A.

MORE KNITTERS NEEDED

More knitters are needed if the quota of 30 sweaters allocated to the Morrow county Red Cross chapter is to be met, according to Mrs. Anna Bayliss, chairman of that division. Yarn for 30 garments has been received and only 14 units have been handed out. Volunteer assistance in this important work will be greatly appreciated. Interested persons should get in touch with Mrs. Bayliss at once.

LUNCHEON-BRIDGE

Mrs. P. W. Mahoney and Mrs. C. J. Espy Jr. were hostesses at a 1 o'clock luncheon today in honor of Mrs. I. A. Mather of Santa Barbara Calif., who is visiting her relatives, the Mahoney family. Nineteen guests were invited to the luncheon at the Lucas Place, which was followed by an afternoon of bridge. Mrs. Mather and daughter, Patty

Jo are spending the month of July here for the benefit of Patty Jo who finds relief here from asthma.

RETURN FROM PORTLAND

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Dix and Jo Jean returned Tuesday evening from Portland where Mrs. Dix and Jo Jean spent several weeks. They were accompanied by Mrs. Lena White and little grandson, Larry Check, who are their guests.

HOME ON FURLOUGH

Sgt. Arthur L. Vance is spending a furlough here visiting his mother, Mrs. Vince Stingle, and other members of the family. He is located at one of the training centers near San Francisco.

VISITING PARENTS

Sgt. Clarence Hayes and Mrs. Hayes are guests this week of the sergeant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hayes. During their son's visit, Mrs. Glen Hayes is taking part of her vacation as manager of the telephone office.

SIMS-BAUM NUPHIALS AN EVENT OF SUNDAY

Wednesday's East Oregonian contains an account of the forthcoming marriage of Miss Jennette Sims of Pendleton to Lt. David C. Baum, United States army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baum of Union. The ceremony will be an event of 2 p. m. in the gardens at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father, C. L. Sims of Portland. Miss Marjorie Sims of Heppner, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor and N. B. Combs, of La Grande, uncle of Lt. Baum, will be best man. Miss Forence Sims of Pendleton, sister of the bride, will sing. After a short wedding trip the couple will reside in Abilene, Tex.

Both Miss Sims and Lt. Baum are graduates of Oregon State college where they were prominent students.

Relatives planning to attend the wedding from Heppner are Mrs. A. D. McMurdo, Miss Lulu Hager, aunts of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hager and Miss Marjorie Sims.

HEPPNER COUPLE WED IN LA GRANDE SUNDAY

The marriage of Miss Edith Sweek and Ray Massey was an event of Sunday afternoon at La Grande, the ceremony being performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lowe, with the Rev. Stanley of the Christian church performing the rites. The bride was attired in a purple suit with matching accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias and rosebuds. Her matron of honor, Mrs. Ed Le Trace, wore a gold suit with matching accessories and a purple and gold corsage. Mr. Le Trace was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowe were hosts for the wedding dinner. The couple left for Los Angeles on a honeymoon trip and will return to Heppner to make their home where both are employed. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sweek of Monument.

REPAIRING PROPERTY

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Daniels, here from Florida for the summer, are improving their property on the hill east of the court house. They expect to return to Florida a little later to resume their wartime jobs. They like the deep south and expect to remain there for the duration.

WAR WINNER Menus

WE are pleased with the many friends we have made — housewives who have exclaimed over the nutritional qualities of all our meals. Menus are carefully planned to give you good, wholesome, nutritious foods. Breakfasts to give a mill or farm worker "something to work on." Lunches are always appetizing. Dinners are always a treat for hungry families. YOU'RE ALWAYS WELCOME. Come in soon!
