Man is Spiritual Being, Luncheon Group Informed

The subject, "The church's relation to the chamber of commerce," was discussed tersely and comprehensively Monday by Archdeacon Neville Blunt as the principal speaker at the luncheon forum. "Man is a spiritual being whether or not he realizes it," Mr. Blunt declared. He pointed out that man is the highest order of life, the one chosen to do the work of the Creator here on earth, a work that in many instances is being neglected through man's indifference to the church and what it stands for. He pled with his listeners to give serious thought to their duty as the elder citizens in setting the pattern for the younger generation.

Some new faces were seen at the Monday luncheon, including C. L. Hodge and Walter S. Ready, both new business men of Heppner. Lt. Jack Forsythe of the Army Air Corps was a special guest and gave his impressions of England and its people as he observed them during 11 months residence. He said the American and British armed forces get along well together and that any differences may be due to the fact that Uncle Sam's boys are much better paid than their British cousins and the American habit of spending money is a bit obnoxious to the people of the little isle.

Edwin Dick, S. I. c., was another guest of the forum.

Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, program chairman of the month, has invited Orville Smith to discuss the housing situation with reference to possibility of remedying the situation in Heppner. Smith will have the floor next Monday.

Film to Discuss Race, Religious Differences

A frank but sympathetic story of the racial and religious differences among Americans today . . . that's March of Time's latest film "Americans All" which tells what Americans are doing about this problem, these age-old prejudices which are holding back the development of America. This is a dramatic and stirring film which is sure to hold the interest of all, for it goes straight to the heart of the questions and contains constructive suggestions as to how Americans of all racial groups can live together in harmony and prosperity while retaining the advantages of existing social arrangements.

The film is highlighted by the appearance of dignitaries of church and state who speak on the subject of what can be done to create greater understanding and cooperation among Americans. The film shows too, some of the abuses to which minority groups are subject. "Americans All" comes to the Star Theater, Heppner, on Wednesday and Thursday, August 16-17, on the same program with Joe E. Brown's funny picture, "Cassanova in Burlesque."

RETURN FROM HONEYMOON

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Massey have returned to Heppner from California where they spent a two-weeks honeymoon following their wedding in La Grande. They have resumed their positions, Mrs. Massey at Nell's Beauty Shop and Mr. Massey with one of the logging concerns.

HAVE NEW SON

A baby boy, Thomas Allen, was born Saturday night to Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Gonty at St. Anthony hospital in Pendleton.
