

BOARDMAN NEWS

By MARGARET THORPE
A son was born Friday night to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gronquist. The baby's father is stationed in Italy.

Sgt Charles Smith arrived Friday night from Boca Raton, Fla. to spend a few days visiting his parents. He stopped in Mississippi and spent a day visiting with his brother Lawrence whom he hadn't seen for three years. He is to report at Kearns, Utah Sept. 1 for overseas service.

Pfc Gilbert Pettys arrived Saturday night from North Carolina to spend a ten day furlough with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Healy spent Sunday in Pendleton visiting Geraldine and the new baby. Mrs. T. Skoubo went up with them to visit Mr. Skoubo who will return home from the hospital Saturday.

J. Howell is in the Hermiston hospital recovering from a stroke. Word was received this week that Mrs. Sam Boardman had a stroke recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ransier have received word from Marvin that he is now in India.

Pfc Lawrence Smith has been transferred from Mississippi to Camp Wolter Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gilstrap will leave soon for California where he has been transferred.

Gene Allen is visiting friends on the project.

Dinner guests at the home of Mrs.

FROM A LAND WHERE CHILDREN NO LONGER PLAY—What thoughts run through the minds of these children, refugees from Poland, whose future may be cared for by Polish Relief, a National War Fund agency.

WE are pleased with the many friends we have made — housewives who have exclaimed over the nutritional qualities of all our meals. Menus are carefully planned to give you good, wholesome, nutritious foods. Breakfasts to give a mill or farm worker "something to work on." Lunches are always appetizing. Dinners are always a treat for hungry families. YOU'RE ALWAYS WELCOME. Come in soon!

HEPPNER CAFE

Cecil Hamilton Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe and family.

GUESTS FROM FOSSIL

Mr. and Mrs. George Clemens of Fossil were visitors Monday at the Frank Engkraf home. Accompanied by Mrs. Engkraf and daughter Nadine they drove to Pendleton where arrangements were made to enter Nadine in the St. Joseph's academy for the winter. Mrs. Clemens and Mrs. Engkraf are sisters.

SUMMERING AT BEACH

Word comes that Mrs. B. F. Swaggart's health is greatly improved after spending several weeks at the beach. She is with her daughter, Mrs. C. S. Wheeler of Pendleton at Cannon Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. Swaggart expect to return soon to the Wheeler home in Pendleton.

TWO WEEKS IN CAMP

Mrs. Lois Winchester and son Lowell Lee Turner returned the first of the week from Ditch creek where they spent two weeks in camp. While there they were joined by Lowell Lee's grandmother, Mrs. Ida Turner of Portland who spent a week with them. Mrs. Winchester took her ponies to the mountains which added to the pleasure of the camping party, as well as to children of other families in camp.

NEW DEPUTY SHERIFF

Mrs. Francis Ely has accepted the position of deputy tax collector in the office of Sheriff John Fuiten, starting her new duties Monday. Mrs. Ely came here from Salem where she and her husband were. She is a native of Lexington and living when he entered the navy. Her husband is the son of George Ely of Ione.

FISHED IN B. C.

Laverne Van Marter Sr. has been in town several days, stopping here on his way to Portland from a trip to British Columbia where he enjoyed ten days of real fishing. He will leave for Portland tomorrow and will be accompanied by Mrs. R. B. Rice and Eleanor Rice.

DRIVE TO PORTLAND

Mrs. Edward Rice drove to Portland Sunday on a short business trip. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry O'Donnell and Eleanor Rice.

ON EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Blaine E. Isom of Heppner has been named on the executive committee in charge of the fall ceremonial of Al Kader Shrine at Pendleton. Isom's particular job will be that of lining up candidates for the ceremonial. He was a member of a class that crossed the hot sands in Al Kader's home temple in Portland in the spring.

Best quality blotting paper in 19x24 sheet for desk covers or cut smaller to suit your needs. Gazette Times printery.

Coming to Heppner Soon

N. Schmaltz & Sons
CONTRACTORS AND APPLICATORS

Authorized representative of El Rey Products Co.

Los Angeles, California

Located in Condon the past three years

We have selected Heppner as a permanent location and will put in a store as soon as a building is available.

We will carry a complete stock of

Roofing and Siding

22 years service as an applicator

Make inquiry at Hotel Heppner

Humphreys Drug Company

Cabinet Stationery

250 Sheets--- 250 Envelopes---

Size 7 1-4 x 10 1-2

Size 3 7-8 x 7 1-2

50 per cent Rag Content Certificate Bond

You can still get 20-pound--the standard stationery weight in rag bonds.

See these Cabinets for either business or personal stationery. It is nice paper---you'll like it.

Gazette Times Printery