BROTHER DIES IN SOUTH

Word of the death of Arthur Leraas, brother of Mrs. Bennie Howe of Heppner, was received Wednesday morning. Mr. Leraas passed away at Hemet, Calif., in the Los Angeles area, following an illness of several months. Mrs. Howe had gotten a reservation on the Union Pacific to visit her brothers and father, expecting to leave Wednesday evening. She did leave last night, accompanied by Mr. Howe, and expects to remain in the south indefinitely. Her father is an elderly man, well up in the eighties, and resides on an acreage near Hemet. Mr. Howe will return to Heppner after a short visit in the south.
