

BOARDMAN NEWS

By MARGARET THORPE
Pfc Gilbert Pettys left Tuesday night for his camp in Georgia after spending a 10-day furlough at home.

Mrs. George Linn has been ill the last few days.

The grange fair held Saturday was a huge success. After all the exhibits were auctioned off the evening was spent dancing. George Daniel was the winner of the quilt. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wicklander, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lundell of Willows who judged the exhibits, and Mr. and Mrs. George Corwin and family of Heppner.

Mrs. Gladys Ford of Waitsburg spent the week-end Boardman visiting friends.

Friends of Alice Wicklander were surprised to hear of her marriage to Joe Tatone of Arlington two weeks ago. Alice is in the Waves and Joe is also in the service.

An error in the canning schedule in last week's items will be corrected as follows: The cannery will operate on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays. No canning will be done until the cannery has been inspected.

Jack Gorham has sold his store to Chas. Stotnow of London. Jack has been operating the store here for 10 years.

Margaret Emerson spent the past week visiting her mother, Mrs. Harry Thorpe. She will go to school in Portland this year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Daniel went to Kennewick Sunday where they got two cows to add to their dairy herd.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Menden have sold their farm and moved to town.

Sgt. Walter Runnert has been ordered to overseas duty and has taken a delay enroute to take his wife and baby to their home in Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Cramer and Mrs. Cramer's sister are visiting on the project.

Lexington News

Mrs. Mary Edwards

Mr. and Mrs. Burrell who operate the Carmichael store have moved into the former Leach house, recently vacated by the Clark Jackson family.

Mrs. Ruth McMillan entertained at the skating rink Tuesday evening honoring Herman Wallace and Gene Majeske who are leaving soon for the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Majeske have returned home after spending a vacation visiting relatives at Ellensburg and vicinity.

Miss Helen Neiger left Monday after a short visit at the Elmer Hunts. Miss Neiger is a former teacher in Lexington high school.

Miss Jerrine Edwards of San Francisco is visiting at the A. M. Edwards' home this week.

Pvt Marvin Cox is spending his furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Cox Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Doherty have taken their little daughter Mary to Portland for medical treatment. Mrs. Allyn is caring for the other two children.

Alene Inskeep is visiting at the Ed Grant home this week.

Miss Edith Edwards left for Spokane Sunday after spending a week visiting her parents in Lexington. She has accepted a position as instructor in the bookkeeping department at Kinman Business college in Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt O'Harra spent last week in La Grande. Mrs. O'Harra was called there on account of the serious illness of her brother.

Gerald Connor of the U. S. Merchant Marines is visiting friends and relatives here this week.

Ed Grant made a business trip to Portland this last week-end.

Mrs. Oscar Breeding went to Prairie City for medical treatment last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Pointer have taken their son Hank to Portland to have the braces adjusted on his legs.

Mrs. Buel Harshman has returned home after visiting her husband, Pvt Buel Harshman in Camp Roberts, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Padberg of Portland are visiting at the Oris Padberg home.

Word has been received that Mrs. Lou Broadley underwent a serious operation on her eyes at a Portland hospital last Monday.

A reception was held at the high school gym for the teachers last Friday evening. A large crowd attended and an enjoyable time was had.

PUBLIC SALE

At my place one mile South of Tom's Cabins

3 miles south of

Boardman, Oregon

Beginning at 10 o'clock a. m.

Thursday, Sept. 21

FREE LUNCH AT NOON

140 head cattle, including 45 yearling heifers—white face, extra good bunch Hereford cattle. 10 yearling steers. 45 head cows—Herefords and Shorthorns. 26 milk cows. 2 registered Hereford bulls. 12 Hereford calves. Heifers and cows to begin calving Feb. 15, 1945.

4 horses; 2 wagons; 2 sets harness; circulator heating stove; 1 wood and coal stove; 7 pack saddles and bags; one 4-wheel trailer; 50-75 bee hives, and other articles too numerous to mention.

Terms: CASH

PETE SLAVIN, Owner

V. R. RUNNION, Auctioneer

HARRY DINGES, Clerk

DO YOUR PART TO PREVENT FOREST FIRES

One match, one cigarette, one careless act means 100 patient years to replace a burned out Oregon forest! OREGON wood is a critical material of war, filling 1200 military uses — BE CAREFUL!

KEEP OREGON GREEN ASSOCIATION SALEM, ORE.

WAR WINNER Menus

WE are pleased with the many friends we have made — housewives who have exclaimed over the nutritional qualities of all our meals. Menus are carefully planned to give you good, wholesome, nutritious foods. Breakfasts to give a mill or farm worker "something to work on." Lunches are always appetizing. Dinners are always a treat for hungry families. YOU'RE ALWAYS WELCOME. Come in soon!

HEPPNER CAFE