DINE OUT for Morale

These are busy times—especially so for the one who has to plan and prepare the meals for the family, for she too is doing her share of war work.

It will be a boost to her's and the family's morale to eat out occasionally—to enjoy one of our STEAK DINNERS, or an oyster supper, or any one of the wide variety of excellent meals to be found on our bill of fare. Come any time... we're always prepared.

What's the Rush?

IT'S THE TELEPHONE RUSH.

Every night thousands of service men and women dash to the nearest telephones to talk with families and friends at home. Most of the Long Distance calls from camps and naval stations are crowded into a few short hours.

Many circuits are likely to be crowded at that time and it helps a lot when you keep the lines clear from 7 to 10 for service men and women.
