

HOME FROM TRIP

Ray McAllister returned the first of the week from Sawtelle, Calif. where he spent several weeks visiting his brother, Harvey (Pap Hayseed) McAllister, resident of the soldiers' home at that place, who has been ailing considerably of late. (More recent residents of the county may wonder why the nickname mentioned above. It was a name given McAllister when he attended Oregon Agricultural college. He was a famous football player of that age and presumably the title was pinned on him because he came from the wheat-growing hills of eastern Oregon. The name has been preserved throughout the years at the college by a rear-view picture taken of McAllister. On the back of his jersey, instead of a numeral, is the name "Pap Hayseed.")

HOME ON LEAVE

Milton L. Morgan, AMM2(c), arrived in Heppner Wednesday from a California port, to spend a 23-day leave with his wife and little son and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Morgan. Milton recently returned to the States from the South Pacific where he spent many months on Guadalcanal and Bougainville. He will be given a re-assignment at the expiration of his leave.

GUEST OF CORWINS

Mrs. Eleanor F. Ingalls of Portland is a guest at the George Corwin home this week. She is Mrs. Corwin's sister.

MAKING SHORT VISIT

Don Turner came home Wednesday morning from Portland where he has been working since his discharge from the army. He is preparing to continue his college career for further study of law.

Cover Girl

Rita Hayworth, Gene Kelly, Lee Bowman, Phil Silvers, Jinx Falkenburg. Music by Jerome Kern.

What you've been waiting for: the magical musical with miracle Technicolor!

THE "10 BEST" MUSICALS OF YEAR ROLLED INTO ONE

That is the description attached to "Cover Girl" to properly explain how good it is. All that Technicolor and the allied forces of musical entertainment can contribute are handsomely accounted for in this co-starring of Rita Hayworth and Gene Kelly at the top of a cast of lush names such as Lee Bowman, Phil Silvers, Jinx Falkenberg, Leslie Brooks, Eve Arden, Otto Kruger and the gorgeous Cover Girls; music by Jerome Kern, lyrics by Ira Gershwin, super-super dances and plenty of comedy. At the Star Theater in Heppner on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 27 and 28.

Mrs. Grace Nickerson drove to Portland Wednesday accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Ann Hatfield of Vallejo, Calif. and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Francis Nickerson of Chicago, who have been her guests the past week. Mrs. Hatfield will proceed to her home from Portland and the Mesdames Nickerson will return to Heppner Saturday. Mrs. Francis Nickerson will leave Pendleton Monday for her home in Chicago.

Ernest Heabler of Wenatchee, Wash. was a guest the past week of home Monday. He is a brother-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Del Ward, returning law of Mrs. Ward's. Mrs. Ward's sister, Mrs. J. T. Knappenberg of Portland, who also was a visitor here for some time, left for home the first of the week.

Guests of Mrs. Cyrene Barratt this week are her sister, Mrs. Lester Wheelhouse and small daughter Vicki of Portland.

Several boys from the county who went to Farragut five or six weeks ago are due home this week on boot leave. Included are Jim Barratt, Walt Skuzeski, Marshall Lovgren and Pat O'Brien.

Regular missionary meeting of the auxiliary of All Saints church will be held Friday at 2:30 in the parish house.

Mrs. R. L. Bengé will be hostess at her home Monday evening, Sept. 25, to the Past Matrons club of the Eastern Star. All members and visitors have been extended an invitation to attend.
