

Teachers' Meeting Set for 19th-20th

Teachers of eastern Oregon will assemble at La Grande the morning of Oct. 19 for the two day annual regional conference of the Oregon State Teachers association. Sessions will be held at the Eastern Oregon College of Education, with educators of the college taking a prominent part in discussions and sectional meetings.

The two-day program is crowded with special talks and lectures by prominent educational workers including Miss Joy Hills, principal Leslie junior high school, Salem; Dr. Elmo Stevenson, O. S. C.; Winston Purvine, state department of education; Miss Marion Zollinger, Portland public schools; Miss Beryl Holt, mathematics, Salem schools; Dr. T. C. Yerian, secretarial science O. S. C.; George B. Cox, industrial arts, O. S. C.; Miss Bertha Kohlhagen, state department of education, and Miss Agnes Shields, state library, Salem.

Banquet speaker Thursday evening will be Amos Berg, world traveler and explorer who recently returned from a South American expedition where he visited 14 countries as official representative of the Pan-American Union. He also is a member of the staff of the National Geographic society.

Schools of Morrow county will be closed to enable the teachers to attend the La Grande meeting.

TEXAS DEMOCRAT ON THE AIR OVER OREGON STATIONS

Farmers desirous of learning the truth about the New Deal set-up are urged to tune in at 6:30 a. m. each morning Monday through Saturday to hear what a real southern Democrat thinks of the political situation. Senator W. Lee O'Daniel, former governor of Texas and now representing that state in the United States senate has a spot on the radio and while it is a bit early for town folk, proponents of real democracy are urging that farmers hear this great champion of the American way of life. Search your dial until you locate the Texan's program.
