

DEWEY

NEW DEAL TIRED, WRANGLING

"AT THE VERY OUTSET I want to make one thing clear. This is not merely a campaign against an individual or a political party. It is not merely a campaign to to displace a tired, exhausted, quarreling and bickering administration with a fresh and vigorous administration. It is a campaign against an administration which was conceived in defeatism, which failed for eight straight years to restore our domestic economy, which has been the most wasteful, extravagant and incompetent administration in the history of the nation and worst of all, one which has lost faith in itself and in the American people."

-THOMAS E. DEWEY
Address, Philadelphia, Pa., September 7, 1944.
