

Lexington News

Mrs. Mary Edwards

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gibson of Hermiston are the proud parents of a new son born at the Pendleton hospital, Sunday Nov. 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell took their son Robert to the hospital at Prairie City last week where he will undergo medical treatment for rheumatic fever from which he has suffered a long time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hicks of The Dalles spent the week-end at the Ed Grant home. They were accompanied by little Barbara Grant who will visit with them over the holidays.

Word was received in Lexington Tuesday from Palo Alto, Calif. of the marriage there of Miss Jerrine Edwards and Herbert Marrs. He is a boatswains mate in the U. S. Navy.

The Lexington Ladies Aid will hold their annual all day meeting and bazaar on Wednesday, Dec. 6. Potluck dinner will be served at noon.

Fire caused by the explosion of an oil stove did considerable damage at the Ted McMillan ranch last Thursday evening. The bunkhouse and woodshed were entirely destroyed and the winters supply of wood burned. Some chickens in an adjoining henhouse were lost.

Cecil Jones of Hanford was visiting his wife and daughter over the week-end.

Mrs. Mae Nichols of Portland was visiting friends and relatives in Lexington and Heppner over the weekend.

ATTEND AYERS FUNERAL

Here to attend the funeral of A. L. Ayers were Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Conway, Ray Conway and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hoschwender of Portland, relatives of Addie M. Ayers; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Ayers and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ayers, Freewater; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lutzer and son Larry of Milton, and Mrs. Bertram Warren, Walla Walla.

BOARDMAN NEWS

Frances Skoubo

A surprise birthday dinner was held in honor of Mrs. Tom Gardiner Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gardiner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown and Reo, M. and Mrs. Edward Kunzie and grandson, Mrs. Alvin Deulen and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderegg and daughter Barbara and Mr. and Mrs. I. Skoubo and Frances.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Sweeney from Hanford spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Dickerhoff.

Mr. and Mrs. George Linn and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fortner motored to Heppner Friday evening to attend a war bond committee meeting.

The second typhoid shot was given at the school house Friday.

The movie projector has arrived so there will be a show Saturday night as scheduled.

Election of Greenfield grange officers was held Saturday night and results are as follows: Bill Lilly, master, Overseer. A. Fortner, chaplain, Adeline Baker; secretary, Edythe Hendicks, treasurer, Florence Root; lecturer, Mrs. McDaniel; juvenile patron, Mrs. Washburn lady assistant, Anna Skoubo; assistant steward, Eldon Lilly; Steward, Mr. Marlow; gatekeeper, Mr. Pearson; ec. com., Minnie McFarland; pianist, Mrs. Madlow. After the meeting chili beans were served in the kitchen.

Elaine Fisher, who is employed at the weather bureau station in La Grande visited friends on the project Friday and Saturday.

The first basketball game of the season will be played in the gym Friday, Nov. 24, Boardman vs Fossil.

Mrs. Edward McClellan from Portland, spent several days with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Edward Kunzie.

George Long left Wednesday morning for Portland where he will spend Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Long.

TEACHER SECURED

Mrs. Everett Smith has been hired to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Norbert Peavy in the Heppner grade school. Mrs. Peavy and children will leave for their new home in Portland the last of the week and Mrs. Smith will take over the teaching duties Monday.

VISITING PARENTS

Ensign Norman Bergstrom and bride are guests at the home of the ensign's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bergstrom of Gooseberry. They came here from Farragut where they visited Roland Bergstrom who is in boot camp. Norman was in the thick of things during the invasion days and helped throw the fireworks around Btst. His wife is a southern girl and during his absence has made her home with her parents in New Orleans.

Visit Our
Toy Department
Gilliam & Bisbee

The Old-Time REVIVAL is Growing in Interest

Sane,
Scriptural
Spiritual
Evangelism

Preaching
Teaching
Singing

The Gospel

W. W. WHITE
Evangelist

CLIFFORD SNYDER
Singer, Artist

CHURCH of CHRIST
Heppner

Every Night Except Monday
Service begins at 7:45, preceded by brief song service

Meetings Will Continue Through November 26

The Public is Cordially Invited to attend these meetings