

News Notes of Comings and Goings in Ione and Vicinity

By MRS. OMAR RIETMANN
Keeping right in step with the 6th War loan, Ione schools sponsored a bond rally Friday night, Dec. 1. Steadily mounting sales brought a total of $52,210 at the close of the evening. This represents purchase price of bonds sold rather than the maturity value.

Of the entire figure, $41,000 was sold in series E bonds and $11,100 in series F and G. Students were buyers of $4,687.50; teachers bought to the extent of $1,668.75. Defense stamps raised the sales with an additional $100.

Entertainment for the rally was handled by Miss Helen Lindsay, general chairman for the event. Numbers were presented by both grade and high schools, all of which were keyed to the patriotic theme. Highlight of the program was the presentation of the rally queen and king, chosen by the bond buyers. Shirley Smouse and Billy Joe Rietmann were selected. Mr. Holcomb introduced them at the end of the evening and crowned them according to their titles. Music was provided by the high school orchestra assisted by Louise Hunt of Lexington. Dancing held sway as bond figures were counted and votes were tabulated on the rally queen and king.

The Parent-Teachers' association, headed by Mrs. Victor Rietmann handled the sale of pie and coffee in the school lunch room.

Pho. M 1-c Bert Mason Jr. left Thursday for a few days visit in Portland before returning to the reassignment center in San Francisco. His mother accompanied him as far as Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn were Pendleton visitors Monday.

Word has been received that "Uncle" Billy Thomas was taken from the Hermiston hospital to Walla

Walla for an operation when it was found that he had broken his hip in a recent fall at his home.

The Union Ladies Missionary society held their Dec. 7 meeting on Thursday of last week. Mrs. Ann Smouse and Mrs. Minnie Forbes were hostesses. Mrs. Harvey Ring gave an interesting report on her trip to McCaw hospital last week.

S. L. Salter underwent a major operation last Wednesday at a Portland hospital. He is reported in satisfactory condition.

The Victory cafe was closed Monday when the proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lieuallen, and Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks made a business trip to Pendleton.

Bert Mason is having his general store calcimined. Walt Roberts, local painter, is doing the job.

The Topic club study meeting was held at the home of Mrs. C. W. Swanson. Hostesses were Mesdames Swanson, Gladys Ely, Mildred Morgan and Norma Rea. The book "Moscow War Diary" by Alexander Werth was reviewed by the hostesses. The December social meeting will be held at the Swanson home at 8 p. m. Dec. 16.

Plans are being made for the community Christmas program which will be held the evening of Dec. 21 at the school house. The Ione P-TA is acting as general committee.

"Ole" King of Milwaukee was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Lindsay.

H. B. Holcomb of Minot, N. D., father of H. G. Holcomb, superintendent of Ione schools, is visiting at the Holcomb home while in the northwest. Mr. Holcomb has been visiting other relatives at Wenatchee, Wash.

James Landsay took a truckload of cattle to Portland last week.

FORMER RESIDENT VISITS

Roy Wakefield, former resident of the county, was a week-end visitor here, coming from Arlington where he and Mrs. Wakefield were visiting relatives. They reside at Madeira, Calif. where they own a store and hay ranch. It was Roy's first visit here in six years. Not being acquainted in Arlington he decided to run on up the branch and hunt up old friends. As a boy and young man he lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Wakefield, in the Heppner flat section.
