

BROWNIE SCOUTS HOLD FIRST CHRISTMAS PARTY

Members of Brownie Girl Scout troop No. 2 enjoyed a Christmas party Dec. 16 in the basement of the Methodist church. Dickens "Christmas Carol" was read and also the ever popular poem, "It Was the Night Before Christmas." The troop put on wraps and hiked to Mrs. Gentry's Convalescent home where they sang carols. Returning to the hall games were played and lunch of hot chocolate and cookies was served, followed by distribution and opening of Christmas gifts and the passing out of oranges and popcorn balls.

Leaders and the troop committee desire to thank everyone who helped to make the Christmas party a success. The Brownies will next meet Jan. 6, 1945.

CONFERENCE SCHEDULED

A three-day conference opening at 10:45 a. m. Jan. 1 has been scheduled at the Assembly of God church in Heppner. Rev. Kelsey Prinzing of Hood River, a district official will be the speaker. There will be three services daily, 10:45 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Following this conference, Rev. Katherine Rueck, returned missionary from China, will hold a series of meetings beginning Jan. 24, with services at 7:45 each evening except Saturday. Miss Rueck is heralded as an able and interesting minister.

HERE ON BUSINESS

Mrs. Percy Hughes came over from Milton last week to attend to business matters preparatory to moving to Milton to make her home. Mrs. Hughes attended the Masonic-Eastern Star dinner and installation here Monday night and left for her new home Wednesday.

CLOSING OVER CHRISTMAS

Scotty's will be closed over the week-end while Mr. and Mrs. James Hall go to Portland to spend Christmas with relatives. The place will reopen Wednesday.

WAYNE RAY STEVENS

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a. m. Dec. 10 for Wayne Ray Stevens, 9, who passed away at the family home in Hermiston. Rev. H. N. Waddell officiated and Marjorie and Carolyn Bauman sang. Wayne was born Oct. 22, 1935 at Brewster, Wash., and had spent much of the past two years at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Crowell at Morgan. He had been at Hermiston with Mr. and Mrs. Vester Nelson the past four months. Surviving besides his mother, Mrs. Nelson, is a brother, J. D. and his father, Millard Stevens with the armed forces in India, and the grandparentst, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Crowell.

Here for the funeral were several relatives, all from the state of Washington, including Mrs. Marie Goldberg, grandmother, Brewster; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Stevens and family, Brewster; Charles Goldberg, Mons; and Mrs. Opal Wurtberg, Tenacet. All were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Crowell over the week-end.

NEW HEATING PLANT

A new heating plant is being installed in the Masonic building this week, following the blowing up of the old plant last week. Frank E. Parker is in charge of installing the new furnace. Tenants of the building have been carrying on as usual but not without a measure of discomfort.
