

TO SPEND CHRISTMAS HERE

Wallace Rockwell of Seattle will arrive Saturday to spend Christmas at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Rockwell. Dr. Rockwell's other children are in the service. Charles, formerly in charge of hydro-electric plant in Los Angeles, now in training at Camp Wolters, Tex. Margaret Rockwell is in training at the Area-QYSN hospital, Sampson, N. Y.

BATTLES SLICK HIGHWAY

Frank Turner drove to Portland Sunday on a business mission. He was accompanied to the city by Mrs. Joe Hughes and John Skuzeski, the former going to Salem to bring her daughter Mary Olive home for the holidays and Skuzeski going to San Francisco to spend the holidays with his son Walter and to take a rest for a few weeks. Returning from Portland, Turner was accompanied by Mrs. Hughes and daughter to Heppner and by Terrell Benges as far as The Dalles where he picked up his own car.

HERE MONDAY NIGHT

Coming for the Eastern Star-Masonic installation Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Roger Thomas of La Grande, former residents here and members of the local orders.

THE COMMODITY CREDIT CORPORATION, THROUGH THE MORROW COUNTY AAA OFFICE, IS OFFERING THE FOLLOWING GRAIN BINS FOR SALE

- 34 UNERECTED NORTHWEST PRODUCTS BINS: size 18' diameter by 15' high, capacity 3340 bushels Price $250
- 1 UNERECTED ECONOMY BIN: size 16'x16'x16', capacity 3000 bushels Price $225
- 8 ERECTED ALLADIN BINS: size 10'x14'x24', capacity 2820 bushels Price $290

(Arrangements can be made with Albert Schunk, Heppner, for moving these bins intact).

The uncertainty of conditions affecting the movement of the 1944 grain crop out of storage before the 1945 harvest, and the urgent need for these bins in other areas have prompted the Commodity Credit Corporation to make this offer. If the bins are not sold locally before March 1, they will be shipped to other areas where the storage problem is critical.

A limited amount of lumber is also being offered for sale. Anyone interested in the purchase of the purchase of bins or lumber should contact the
