

BOARDMAN NEWS

Frances Skoubo

Funeral services for Mike Marshall will be held in Heppner Friday.

Asta Skoubo, c/n, Eleanor Skoubo from Eugene, Erna Skoubo, c/n, from Salem and Dagmar Skoubo, student of Pendleton senior high school, spent Christmas day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Skoubo.

Lt Ted Wilson, stationed in Bakersfield, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Homer Baker, Mrs. John McClaskey, The Dalles, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston from Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Wilson, Portland, spent Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Wilson.

Mrs. Claude Coats and Mrs. Glenn Mallery spent Christmas in Seattle.

Miss Katherine Smoke and Miss Marjorie Smoke from Oswego visited several days with Mr. and Mrs. Lehman.

The community Christmas tree and program were held in the auditorium Thursday night. A large crowd attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Ely spent Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ely.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Anderegg and Barbara. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gardiner, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kunze and grandsons Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mulligan and family, Bill Harrington and Ralph Wasmer had Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. I. Skoubo.

Word was received from Lyle Robertson from Europe Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ransier and family from Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marlow, Daniel Ransier from Pendleton and Miss Lelona Self spent Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ransier.

There was an unusually large crowd at the Christmas dance sponsored by the student body Saturday night.

Miss Dorothy Roach and Robert Zeppenfeld spent Christmas with

Mr. and Mrs. Roach. Dorothy is attending high school in Bremerton.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Root spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Root.

Glenda Case from Rowena spent Saturday visiting friends here. Edward McClellan and Glenda motored to Rowena Sunday.

TEACHERS RESIGN

Two resignations in the teaching force the past week have been accepted and their places filled, according to the board of directors of school district 12, Lexington. Resigning were Mrs. C. C. Carmichael and Mrs. Eula Barnhouse. Engaged to teach in their places are Mrs. Horace Holcomb and Mrs. Char. O'Connor, both of Ione. Mrs. H. Umb will teach the seventh and eighth grades and Mrs. O'Connor will be high school instructor.

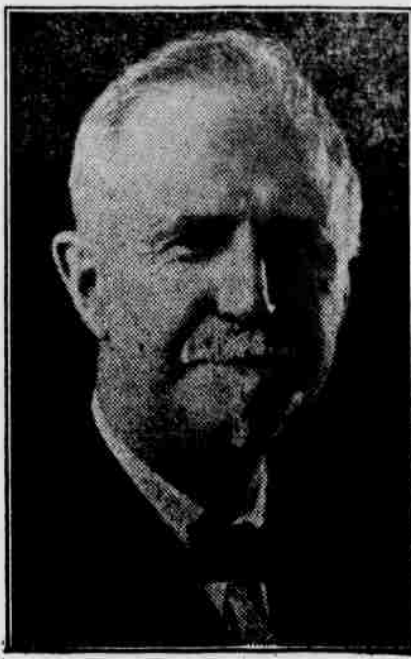

Mrs. Dorris Mitchell has resigned from the Heppner school because of the serious illness of her husband. Supt. Corwin is hopeful of having a new teacher on the job next Tuesday. Mrs. F. W. Turner has been substituting for Mrs. Mitchell.

VISITED IN PORTLAND

C. W. Barlow and daughters, Marie, and Mrs. Robert Walker, spent Christmas and part of the week in Portland with Mrs. Barlow and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Akers. Pvt Robert Walker came from Yakima and joined the family enroute to Portland, leaving there for Fort Douglas, Utah.

FLEET OWNER COUPONS DUE

Truck fleet owners are advised by the rationing office that they may get their gas coupons after noon Friday. All who asked for additional coupons will have to apply through the county agent's office as the local board has no authority to grant additional gasoline.

ROGER W. BABSON
Pioneer in the field of business and financial matters

ANDREW J. LAKE PASSES

Mrs. Earle Gilliam has received news of the passing of her brother-in-law, Andrew J. Lake. Death came to him Dec. 24 at the family home in Ontario. He had suffered from a heart ailment for about three years.

Surviving are Mrs. Lake and two children, Ruth, 12 and Jack 10.

Mr. Lake and family visited the Gilliams in November. Mrs. Lake is the former Linnie Perry of Heppner.

UNDERGOES APPENDECTOMY

Bob Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kelly, underwent an appendectomy Wednesday morning at the Heppner hospital. Young Kelly is a junior in Heppner high school.

HOLIDAYING HERE

Loma Mae Jones, student at Eugene Bible school is spending the Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Jones.

HERE FROM HOOD RIVER

The Kenneth Vosbergs are enjoying a visit from Mr. Vosberg's father and two of his sisters from Hood River.

Best quality blotting paper in 19x24 sheet for desk covers or cut smaller to suit your needs. Gazette Times printery.

All Elks, their ladies, families and house guests are invited to attend a

New Year's Dance

at the hall

Saturday Evening
December 30

This is a private dance

Admission 50c; Tax 10c; Total 60c per person

We Extend to One and All
New Year's Greetings

With the hope that we will all work together, play together, think together toward the one time that matters most . . . then we'll all celebrate in a fitting manner when our boys and girls come home.

Hodge Chevrolet Co.